

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. 16 And they that went in, went in male and female of all flesh, as God had commanded him: and the Lorp shut him in.

17 And the tood was forty days upon the earth; and the waters incressed, and bare up the ark, and it was lifted up above the earth. 13 And the waters prevailed, and were increased greatly upon the earth; and the ark went upon the face of the waters.

19 And the waters prevailed exceedingly upon the earth; and all the high hills that were under the whole heaven were covered.

20 Fifteen cubits upward did the waters prevail; and the mountains were covered.

21 And all flesh died that moved upon the earth, both of rowl, and of cattle, and of beast, and of every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth, and every man :

22 All in whose nostrils was the breath of life, of all that was in the dry land, died.

23 And every living substance was destroyed which was upon the face of the ground, both man and cattle, and the creeping things, and the fowl of the heaven; and they were destroyed from the earth; and Noah only 12mained alive, and they that were with him in an hundred and fifty days.

ND God remembered Noah, and every All living thing, and all the cattle that was with him in the ark: and God made a wind to pass over the earth, and the waters as maged;

2 The fountains also of the deep, and the windows of heaven, were stopped, and the rain from heaven was restrained :

3 And the waters returned from off the earth continually: and after the end of the bundred and hity days the waters were abated.

4 % And the ark rested in the seventh month. on the seventeenth day of the month, upon the mountains of Ararat.

5 And the waters decreased continually until the tenth month; in the tenth month, on the first day of the month, were the tops of the mountains seen.

6 ¶ And it came to pass at the end of forty days, that Noah opened the window of the ark which he had made.

7 And he sent forth a raven, which went forth to and fro, until the waters were dried up from of the earth.

8 Also he sent forth a dove from him, to see if the waters were abated from oif the face of the ground.

- 9 But the dove found no rest for the sole of her foot, and she returned unto him into the ark : for the waters were on the face of the whole earth. Then he put forth his hand, and took her, and pulled her in unto him into the ark.
- 10 And he staved yet other seven days, and again he sent for the dove out of the ark.
- 11 And the dove came in to him in the evening, and, lo, in her mouth ras an olive-leaf plucked off. So Noah knew that the waters were abated from off the earth.

12 And he stayed yet other seven days, and sent forth the dove; which returned not again unto him any more.

13 % And it came to pass, in the six hundredth and first year, in the first month, the first day of the month, the waters were dried up from off the earth: and Noah removed the covering of the ark, and looked, and, behold, the face of the ground was in y.

1 Noah's generations. 8 Nimrod the first manarch. 21 The sons of Shem, &c.

Now these are the generations of the some of Noah; Shem, Ham, and Japheth: and unto them were some born after the flood. 2 The sons of Japheth: Gomer, and Maog, and Madai, and Javan, and Tubal, and

Meshech, and Tiras. 3 And the sons of Gomer; Ashkenez, and Riphath, and Togarmah. 4 And the sons of Javan; Elishah, and Tarshish, Kittim, and Dodanim. 5 By these were the isles of the Gentiles divided in their lands; every one after his tongue, after their families, in their nations. 6 T And the sons of Ham; Cush, and Mizraim, and Phut, and Canaan. 7 And the sons of Cush; Seba, and Havilah, and Sabtah, and Raamah, and Sabtecha: and the sons of Raamah; Sheba, and 8 And Cush begat Nimrod : he began to be a mighty one in the earth. 9 He was a mighty hunter before the Lorp: wherefore it is said, Even as Nimrod the children of Eber, the brother of Japheth the eisier, even to him were children born. 22 The children of Shem; Flam, and Ashur, and Arphaxad, and Lud, and Aram.

23 And the children of Aram; Uz, and Hul, and Gether, and Mash.

24 And Arphaxad begat Salah; and Salah! begat Eber.

25 And unto Eber were born two sons; the name of one was Peleg; for in his days was the earth divided; and his brother's name was Joktan.

26 And Joktan begat Almodad, and Sheleph, and Hazarmaveth, and Jerah, 27 And Hadoram, and Uzal, and Diklah.

28 And Obal, and Abimael, and Sheba, 29 And Ophir, and Havilah, and Jobab; all these were the sons of Joktan.

1 Lot entertaineth two angels. 24 Sodom and Gomorrah destroyed. 26 Lot's wife punished.

ND there came two angels to Sodom at even; and Lot sat in the gate of Sodom: and Lot seeing them, rose up to meet them; and he bowed himself with his face toward the ground:

2 And he said, Behold now, my lords, turn in, I pray you, into your servant's house, and tarry all night, and wash your feet, and ye shall rise up early, and go on your ways. And they said, Nay; but we will abide in the street all night. 3 And he pressed upon them greatly; and they turned in unto him, and entered into his house: and he made them a feast, and did bake unleavened bread, and they did eat. 4 ¶ But before they lay down, the men of the city, even the men of Sodom, compassed the house round, both old and young, all the people from every quarter.

5 And they called unto Lot, and said unto him, Where are the men which came in to thee this night? bring them out unto us, that we may know them.

8 And Lot went out at the door unto them. and shut the door after him,

7 And said, I pray you, brethren, do not so wickedly. 8 Behold now, I have two daughters which have not known man; let me, I pray you, bring them out unto you, and do ye to them as is good in your eyes: only unto these men do nothing; for therefore came they under the altadow of my roof. 9 And they said, Stand back. And they said again, This one fellow came in to sojourn, and he will needs be a judge: now will we deal worse with thee than with them. And they pressed sore upon the man, even Lot, and came near to break the door. 10 But the men put forth their hand, and pulled Lot into the house to them, and shul to 3 But God came to Abimelech in a dream by night, and said to him, Behold, thou art but a dead man, for the woman which thou hast taken : for she is a man's wife.

4 But Abimelech had not come near her: and he said. Loan, will thou slay also a right-

5 Said he not unto me, She & my sister? and she, even she berself said. He is my brother: in the integrity of my heart, and innocency of my hands, have I done this.

6 And God said unto him in a dream. Yea, I know that thou didst this in the integrity of the heart; for I also withheld thee from sinming against me: therefore suifered I thee not and Abraham made a great feast the same day to tauch ber.

7 Now therefore, restore the man his wife; and thou shalt live : and if thou restore her mocking ort, know thou that thou shalt surely die,

3 ¶ And Abraham rose up early in the morning, and saddled his ass, and took two of his young men with him, and Isaac his son; and clave the wood for the burnt-offering, and rose up, and went unto the place of which God had told him.

4 Then on the third day Abraham lifted up his eyes, and saw the place afar off.
5 And Abraham said unto his young men,

Abide you here with the ass; and I and the lad will go yonder and worship, and come again to you. 6 And Abraham took the wood of the burnt-

I Judah begetteth Er, Onan, and Shelah. 6 Er marrieth Tamar. 8 The trespass of Onan. 12 Judah's incest with Tamer.

ND it came to pass at that time, that Judah went down from his brethren, and turned in to a certain Adullamite, whose name was Hirah.

2 And Judah saw there a daughter of a certain Canaanite, whose name was Shuah: and he took her, and went in unto her.

3 And she conceived, and bare a son; and he called his name Er. 4 And she conceived again, and bare a son; and she called his name Onan. 5 And she yet again conceived, and bare a son; and called his name Shelah; and he was at Che2lb when she bare him. 6 And Judah took a wife for Er his firstborn, whose name mer Tamer.

7 And Er, Judah's first-born, was wicked in the sight of the Loan; and the Loan slew him. 8 And Judah said unto Onan, Go in unto thy brother's wife, and marry her, and raise up seed to thy brother. 9 And Onan knew that the seed should not be his: and it came to pass, when he went in unto his brother's wife, that he spilled it on the ground, lest that he should give seed to his brother.

10 And the thing which he did displemed the Loap: wherefore he slew him also.

11 Then said Judah to Tamar his daughterin-law, Remain a widow at thy father's house oll Shelah my son be grown: (for he said, best possilyanture he die also as his brethrau

12 T And in process of time, the tlaughter of Shuah. Judah's wife, died: and Judah was comforted, and went up unto his sheep-shearers to Timnath, he and his friend Hirah the Adullamite.

13 And it was told Tamar, saying, Behold, thy father-in-law goeth up to Timnath to shear his sheep.

14 And she put her widow's garments off from her, and covered her with a vail, and wrapped horself, and sat in an open place, which is by the way to Timnath: for she saw that Shelah was grown, and she was not given unto him to wife.

said, that there was no harlot in this place.

23 And Judah said, Let her take it to her, lest we be ashamed behold, I sent this kid, and

4 And Joseph found grace in his sight, and he served him : and he made him overseer over his house, and all that he had he put into his band

5 And it came to pass from the time that he had made him overseer in his house, and over all that he had, that the Loan blessed the Egyptian's house for Joseph's sake: and the blessing of the Loan was upon all that he had in the house, and in the field.

6 And he left all that he had in Joseph's hand; and he knew not aught he had, save the bread which he did eat: and Joseph was a goodly person, and well-faroused

7 ¶ And it came to pass after these things. that his master's wife cast her eyes upon Joseph; and she said, Lie with me.

all that he bath to my band: 9 There is none greater in this house than I;

neither hath he kept back any thing from me but thee, because thou art his wife: how then can I do this great wickedness, and sin against God?

10 And it came to pass, as she spake to Joseph day by day, that he hearkened not unto her, to lie by her, or to be with her.

11 And it came to pass, about this time, that Joseph went into the house to do his business; and there was none of the men of the house there within. 12 And she caught him by his garment, saying. Lie with me : and he left his garment in her hand, and fled, and got him out. 13 And it came to pass, when she saw that prison.

I The buller and baker of Pharach are imprisened : 5 Joseph interpretesh their dream

ND it came to pass after these things A that the butler of the king of Egypt and his baker had offended their lord the king of baker, among his servants. Egypt

2 And Pharach was wroth against two of his officers, against the chief of the butlers, Pharaoh's band : and against the chief of the bakers.

5 ¶ And they dreamed a dream both of them, each man his dream in one night, each man-according to the interpretation of his dream; the butler and the baker of the king of Egypt, which were bound in the prison.

6 And Joseph came in unto them in the morning, and looked upon them, and, behow, they were sad. 7 And he asked Pharaoh's officers that were with him in the ward of his lord's house, saying, Wherefore look ye so sadiy to-Jay? 8 And they said unto him. We have dream ed a dream, and there is no interpreter of it. And Joseph said unto them, Do not interpretations belong to God? Tell me them, I pray you. 9 And the chief butler told his dream to Joseph, and said unto him, In my dream, behold, a vine was before me ;

10 And in the vine were three branches: and it was as though it budded, and her blossoms shot forth; and the clusters thereof brought forth ripe grapes.

Il And Pharaoh's cup was in my hands and I took the grapes, ar. pressed them into Pharaoh's cup, and I gave the cup into Pharach's hand,

12 And Joseph said unto him, This is the interpretation of it: The three branches are three days. 13 Yet within three days shall Pharach lift up thise head, and restore thee unto thy place; and thou shalt deliver Pharaoh's cup thou wast his butler.

14 But think on me when it shall be well with thee, and shew kindness, I pray thee. unto me; and make mention of me unto Pharaoh, and bring me out of this house:

15 For indeed I was stolen away out of the land of the Hebrews; and here also have I done nothing that they should put me into the dung on.

16 When the chief baker saw that the interpretation was good, he said unto Joseph, I also was in my dream, and, behold, I had three white baskets on my head.

17 And in the uppermost basket there mas of all manner of bake-meats for Pharaoh; and the birds did out them out of the banket upon my head.

3 And, behold, seven other kine came up after them out of the river, ill-favoured and ican-fleshed; and stood by the other kine, upon the brink of the river. 4 And the ill-favoured and lean-fleshed kine did eat up the seven well-favoured and fat kine. So Pharaob awoke. 5 And he slept, and dreamed the second time: and, behold, seven ears of corn came up upon one stalk, rank and good.

6 And, behold, seven thin ears, and blasted with the east wind, sprung up after them.

7 And the seven thin cars devoured the seven rank and full ears. And Pharaoh awoke, and, behold, it was a dream.

8 And it came to pass in the morning, that his spirit was troubled; and he sent and called for all the magicians of Egypt, and all the wise men thereof: and Pharaon told them his dream; but there was none that could interpret them unto Pharaoh.

9 Then spake the chief butler unto Pharanh, saying, I do remember my faults this day.

10 Pharanh was wroth with his servants, and put me in ward in the captain of the guard's house, both me and the chief baker. 11 And we dreamed a dream in one night.

I and he : we dreamed each man according to the interpretation of his dream.

12 And there was there with us a young man, an Hebrew, servant to the captain of the guard: and we told him, and he interpreted to us our dreams : to each man according to his dream he did interpret.

13 And it came to pass, as he interpreted to us, so it was : me he restored unto mine office, and him he hanged.

14 T Then Pharach sent and called Joseph, and they brought him hastly out of the dun-geon; and he shaved himself, and changed his raiment, and came in unto Pharaoh.

15 And Pharaoh said unto Joseph, I have dreamed a dream, and there is none that can interpret it: and I have heard say of thee, that thou canst understand a dream to interpret it.

16 And Joseph answered Pharaoh, saying, It is not in me: God shall give Pharaoh an answer of peace. 17 And Pharach said unto Joseph, In my 24 And the thin ears devoured the seven good ears. And I told this unto the magi cians; but there was none that could declare ##

25 ¶ And Joseph said unto Pharaoh, The dream of Pharaoh is one: God hath shewed Pharanh what he is about to do.

26 The seven good kine are seven years ; and the seven good ears are seven years : the dream is one

27 And the seven thin and ill-favoured kine that came up after them, are seven years; and the seven empty ears blasted with the east wind, shall be seven years of famine. 28 This is the thing which I have spoken unto Pharaoh: What God is about to do he sheweth unto Pharaoh.

29 Behold, there come seven years of great plenty throughout all the land of Egypt.

30 And there shall arise after them seven years of famine; and all the plenty shall be forgotten in the land of Egypt : and the famine shall consume the land

31 And the plenty shall not be known in the land, by reason of that famine following; for it shall be very grievous.

32 And for that the dream was doubled unto Pharaoh twice; it is because the thing is esta-blished by God, and God will shortly bring it to pass. 33 Now therefore, let Pharmon look out a man discreet and wise, and set him over the land of Egypt.

34 Let Pharson do this, and let him appoint officers over the land, and take up the fifth eart of the land of Egypt in the seven plenteous years.

35 And let them gather all the food of those good years that come, and lay up corn under the hand of Pharaoh, and let them keep food in the cities 36 And that food shall be for store to the land, against the seven years of famine which shall be in the land of Egypt; that the land perish not through the famine 37 And the thing was good in the eyes of Pharaoh, and in the eyes of all his servants.

38 ¶ And Pharaoh said unto his servants. Can we find such a ens as this is, a man in

LORD: It is an offering made by fire unto the LORD. 26 And thou shalt take the breast of the ram of Aaron's consecration, and wave it for a wave-offering before the Loap; and it shall be thy part.

27 And thou shalt sanetify the breast of the wave-offering, and the shoulder of the heaveoffering, which is waved, and which is heaved up, of the ram of the consecration, even of that which is for Auron, and of that which is for his sons

28 And it shall be Auron's and his sons' by a statute for ever from the children of Israel: for it is an heave-offering : and it shall be an heave-offering from the children of Israel of the secrifice of their peace-offerings, even their heave-offering unto the Loan. 29 ¶ And the bely garments of Auron shall be his som' after him, to be anointed therein, and to be consecrated in them.

30 And that son that is priest in his stead shall put them on seven days, when he cometh into the tabernacle of the congregation to minister in the holy place.

31 ¶ And thou shalt take the ram of the consecration, and seethe his flesh in the hely place.

32 And Auron and his tons shall eat the firsh of the ram, and the bread that is in the basket, by the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.

33 And they shall eat those things wherewith the atonement was made, to con-ecrate and to sanctify them : but a stranger-shall not eat thereof, because they are boly.

34 And if aught of the flesh of the consecration, or of the bread, remain unto the moraing: then thou shalt burn the remainder with fire : it shall not be eaten, because it is holy.

35 And thus shalt thou do unto Aaron, and to his sons, according to all things which I have commanded then: sevendays shall thou

21 And they came, every one whose heart stirred him up, and every one whom his spirit made willing, and they brought the Load's offering to the work of the tuberracle of the congregation, and for all his service, and for the holy garments. 22 And they came, both men and women.

as many as were willing hearted, and brought bracelets, and ear-rings, and rings, and taklets, all jewels of gold: and every man that offered, offered an offering of gold unto the Lord.

23 And every man, with whom was found blue, and purple, and scarler, and fine linen, and goats' hair, and red skins of rams, and Badgers' skins, brought them. 24 Every one that did offer an offering of silver and beam brought the LORD's offering : from bringing. and every man, with whom was found shit-tim-wood for any work of the service, brought all the work to make it, and too much.

25 And all the women that were wise-heart-ed did spin with their hands, and brought that which they had spun, both of blue, and of purple, and of scarlet, and of fine linen.

26 And all the women whose heart stirred them up in wisdom spun goats' hair. 27 And the rulers brought onvx-stones, and tones to be set, for the ephod, and for the reast-plate : 28 And spice, and oil for the light, and for the mointing oil, and for the sweet incense. 29 The children of Israel brought a willing offering unto the Load, every man and wo-man, whose heart made them willing to bring for all manner of work, which the LORD had commanded to be made by the hand of Mores.

30 T And Mores said unto the children of Israel. See, the Long hath called by name Rezaleel, the son of Uri, the son of Hur, of the tribe of Judah:

31 And he hath filled him with the spirit of God, in wisdom, in understanding, and in knowledge, and in all manner of workmanihip ;

32 And to devise carlons works, to work in gold, and in silver, and in brass, 33 And in the cutting of stones, to set them, d in cerving of wood, to make any manner of cuaning work.

34 And he hath put in his heart that he may teach, both he, and Aholiab, the son of Abicareach, of the tabe of Dan.

35 Them hath he filled with wiedom of heart, to work all manner of work, of the engraver, and of the cunning workman, and and the anointing oil, and the sweet incense, of the embroiderer, in blue, and in purple, and the hanging for the door at the entering in searlet, and in fine linen, and of the weaver, even of them that do any work, and of

The offerings delivered to the workmen.

The liberality of the people restrained. THEN wrought Bezaleel and Aboliab, and every wive-hearted man, in whom the LORD put wisdom and understanding to know how to work all manner of work for the service of the sanctuary, according to all that the

Lorn had commanded. -2 And Moses called Bezaleel and Aboliab. and every wise-hearted man, in whose heart the Loan had put wisdom, even every one whose heart stirred him up to come unto the work to do it :

3 And they received of Moses all the offering, which the children of Israel had brought for the work of the service of the sanctuary, to make it withal. And they brought yet unto him free-offerings every morning.

4 And all the whe men, that wrought all the work of the sanctuary, came every man from his work which they made;

5 T And they spake unto Moses, saying, The people bring much more than enough for the rervice of the work, which the Loan commanded to make.

6 And Moses gave commandment, and they caused it to be proclaimed throughout the camp, saying. Let neither man nor woman make any more work for the offering of the ranctuary. So the people were restrained

8° I And every wise-hearted man among them that wrough the work of the tabernacie made ten curtains of fine twined linen and blue, and purple, and searlet: with charubims of cunning work made he them. 9 The length of one curtain was twenty and

11 And whomsoever be toucheth that hath the issue, (and hath not rinsed his hands in water.) he shall wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the even.

12 And the vessel of earth that he toucheth which hath the issue, shall be broken : and every vessel of wood shall be rinsed in water.

13 And when he that hath an issue is cleansed of his issue; then he shall number to himself seven days for his cleansing, and wash his clothes, and bathe his flesh in running water, and shall be clean.

14 And on the eighth day he shall take to him two turtle-doves, or two young pigeons, and come before the Loan unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, and give them unto the priest. 15 And the priest shall offer them, the one for a sin-offering, and the other for a burnt-offering; and the priest shall make an atone ment for him before the Lord for his issue.

16 And if any man's seed of copulation go out from him, then he shall wash all his flesh in water, and be unclean until the even.

17 And every garment, and every skin, whereon is the sped of copulation, shall be washed with water, and be unclean until the even 18 The woman also with whom man shall 11 And Aaron shall bring the bullock of the sin-offering which to for himself, and shall make an atonement for himself, and for his house, and shall kill the bullock of the sinoffering which & for himself.

12 And he shall take a censer full of burning coals of fire from off the altar before the LORD, and his hands full of sweet incease beates small, and bring if within the vail.

13 And he shall put the incesse upon the fire before the Loap, that the cloud of the incense may cover the mercy-seat that is upon the testimony, that he die not.

14 And he shall take of the blood of the bullock, and sprinkle if with his finger upon the mercy-seat eastward: and before the mercy-seat shall he sprinkle of the blood with his finger seven times 15 Then shall he kill the goat of the sinoffering that is for the people, and bring his blood within the vail, and do with that blood as he did with the blood of the bullock, and sprinkle it upon the mercy-seat, and before the mercy-seat.

16 And he shall make an atonement for the holy place, because of the uncleanness of the children of Israel, and because of their transgressions in all their sine : and so shall he do for the tabernacie of the congregation tha: remaineth among them in the midst of the:: uncleanness.

17 And there shall be no man in the tabernacle of the congregation when he goeth in to make an atonement in the holy place, until he come out, and have made an atonement for himself, and for his household, and for all the congregation of Israel.

18 And he shall go out unto the altar that is before the Loun, and make an atonement for it; and shall take of the blood of the bullock. and of the blood of the goat, and put if upon the horns of the altar round about

19 And he sha!! sprinkle of the blood upon it with his finger seven times, and cleanse it, and hallow it from the uncleanness of the children of Israel. 20 ¶ And when he hath made an end of reconciling the boly place, and the tabernacle of the congregation, and the altar, he shall bring the live goat :

33 This is the service of the families of the sons of Alerari, according to all their service in the tabernacle of the congregation, under the hand of Ithamar the son of Aaron the priest.

34 T And Moses and Aaron, and the chief of the congregation, numbered the sons of the Kobathites, a ter their families, and after the house of their fathers:

35 From thirty years old and upward even unto fifty years old, every one that entereth into the service for the work in the tabernacle of the congregation: 36 And those that were numbered of them, by their families, were two thousand seven bundred and fifty. 37 These were they that were numbered of the families of the Kohathites, all that might do service in the tabernacle of the congregation, which Moses and Aaron did number, according to the commandment of the Loan by the hand of Moses.

38 And those that were numbered of the fons of Gershon, throughout their families, and by the house of their fathers, 39 From thirty years old and upward even unto fafty years old, every one that entereth into the service for the work in the tabernacle of the congregation;

40 Even those that were numbered of them, throughout their families, by the house of their fathers, were two thousand and six hundred and thirty.

41 These are they that were numbered of the families of the sons of Gershon, of all that might do service in the tabernacle of the conerecation, whom Moses and Aaron did number, according to the commandment of the Loep.

42 ¶ And those that were numbered of the families of the sons of Merari, throughout their families, by the house of their futhers,

43 From thirty years old and upward, even into fifty years old, every one that entereth into the service for the work in the tabernacie of the congregation;

44 Even those that were numbered of them, ofter their families, were three thousand and two hundred.

45 These be those that were numbered of the families of the sons of Merari, whom Moses and Aaron numbered, according to the word of the Loap by the hand of Moses.

46 All those that were numbered of the rvites, whom Moses and Aaron and the chief of Israel numbered, after their families, and after the house of their fathers;

47 From thirty years old and upward; even unto fifty years old, every one that came to do the service of the ministry, and the service of the burden in the tabernacie of the congregation:

48 Even those that were numbered of them. ere eight thousand and five hundred and fourscore.

49 According to the commandment of the Loan they were numbered by the hand of Moses, every one according to his service, and according to his burden: thus were they numbered of him, as the Loan commanded Moses

5 Restitution enjoined. 11 The trial of jealousy. ND the Load spake unto Moses, saying, . 2 Command the children of Israel, that they put out of the camp every leper, and every one that hath an issue, and whosoever is dealled by the dead:

3 Both male and female shall ye put out, without the camp shall ye put them; that they defile not their camps, in the midst whereof I dwell.

4 And the children of Israel did so. and put them out without the camp: as the LORD spake unto Moses, so did the children of Israel. 5 T And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,

6 Speak unto the children of Israel, When a man or woman shall commit any sin that men commit, to do a trespass against the LORD, and that person be guilty;

7 Then they shall confess their sin which they have done : and he shall recompense his trespass with the principal thercof, and adu unto it the fifth part thereof, and give it unto him against whom he hath trespassed.

8 But if the man have no kinsman to recompense the trespass unto, let the trespass be recompensed unto the Lond, even to the priest, besides the ram of the atonement, wherely an atonement shall be made for him. 9 And every offering of all the holy things of the children of Israel, which they bring unto the priest, shall be his.

10 And every man's hallowed things shall be his: whatsoever any man giveth the priest, it shall be his.

11 ¶ And the Logo spake unto Moses, say-

12 Spe-'s unto the children of Israel, and say unto them, If any man's wife go aside, and commit a trespais against him.

13 And a man lie with her carnally, and it be his from the eyes of her husband, and be kept close, and she be defiled, and there be no witness against her, neither she be taken with the manner;

14 And the spirit of jealousy come upon him, and he be jealous of his wife, and she be defiled; or if the spirit of jealousy come upon him, and he be jealous of his wife, and she be not defiled:

15 Then shall the man bring his wife unto t'. priest, and he shall bring her offering for her, the tenth part of an ephan of barley-meal; he shall pour no oil upon it, nor put frankincense thereon; for it is an offering of jealousy. an offering of memorial, bringing iniquity to remembrance.

16 And the priest shall bring her near, and set her before the LORD.

17 And the priest shall take holy water in an earthen vessel; and of the dust that is in the floor of the tabernacle the priest shall take, and put if into the water.

18 And the priest shall set the woman before the Load, and uncover the woman's head, and put the offering of memorial in her hands, which is the jealousy-offering; and the priost shall have in his hand the bitter water that causeth the curse.

19 And the priest shall charge her by an oath, and say unto the woman. If ne man have lain with thee, and if thou hast not gone acide to unclea.ness with another imteal of thy husband, be thou free from this bitter; water that causeth the curse :

20 But if thou hast gone aside to another instead of thy husband, and if thou be deflied, and some man hath lain with thee besides thine husband; 21 Then the priest shall charge the woman with an cath of cursing; and the priest shall ga, unto the woman. The Loap make thee a carse and an oath among thy people, when the Loun doth make thy thigh to rot, and thy and he hath defiled the head of his consecrabelly to swell;

22 And this water that causeth the curse shall go into thy bowels, to make thy belly to swell, and thy thigh to rot. And the woman shall say, Amen, amen.

23 And the priest shall write these curses in a book, and he shall blot them out with the bitter water: 21 And he shall cause the woman to drink the bitter water that causeth the curse: and the water that causeth the curse shall enter icto her, and become bitter. 25 Then the priest shall take the jealousy-it upon the altar 35 And the priest shall take an handful of the offcring, even the memorial thereof, and hurn it upon the altar, and afterward shall cause the woman to drink the water. 27 And when he hath made her to drink the water, then it shall come to pass, that if she be deficed, and have done trespass against her husband, that the water that causeth the curse shall enter into her, and become bitter, and her bully shall swell, and her thigh shall ent: and the woman shall be a curse among her people. 26 And if the woman be not dealed, but be clein; then she shall be free, and shall enactive seed.

29 This is the law of jealousies, when a wife and engine to another instead of her husband, and is defiled:

30 Or when the spirit of jealousy cometh spen him, and he be jealous over his wife, and shall set the woman before the Lord. and the priest shall execute upon her all this law.

31 Then shall the man be guiltless from ini-quity, and this woman shall bear her iniquity. CHAP. VI.

I The law of the Nazarite. 24 The form 3 blessing the people.

ND the LORD spake unto Moses, saying, 2 Speak unto the children of Israel. and say unto them. When either man or woman shall separate themselves to vow a vow of a Nazarite, to separate themselves unto the Lorn: 3 He shall separate himself from wine, and strong drink, and shall drink no vinegar of wine, or vinegar of strong drink, neither shall he drink any liquor of grapes, nor eat moist grapes, or dried

4 All the days of his separation shall he eat nothing that is made of the vine-tree, from the kernels even to the busk. 5 All the days of the vow of his separation there shall no razor come upon his head; until the days be fulfilled, in the which he reparateth himself unto the Loan, he shall he laily, and shall let the locks of the hair of his nead grow.

6 All the days that he separateth himself unto the LORD, he shall come at no dead body 7 He shall not make himself unclean for his father, or for his mother, for his brother, or for his sister, when they die; because the consecration of his God is upon his head. 8 All the days of his separation he is holy unto the Lorn. 9 And if any man die very suddenly by him.

tion; then he shall shave his head in the day of his cleansing, on the seventh day shall he shave it.

10 And on the eighth day he shall bring two turtles, or two young pigeons, to the priest, to the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.

11 And the priest shall offer the one for a sin-offering, and the other for a burnt-offering, and make an atonement for him, for that he sinned by the dead, and shall hallow his head that same day.

12 And he shall consecrate unto the LORD ofering out of the woman's hand, and shall the days of his separation, and shall bring a wave the offering before the Load, and offer lamb of the first year for a trespass-offering; but the days that were before shall be lost, because his separation was defiled.

13 ¶ And this is the law of the Nazarite; When the days of his separation are fulfilled, he shall be brought unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation;

14 And he shall offer his offering unto the LORD, one he-lamb of the first year without blemish for a burnt-offering, and one ewelamb of the first year without blemish for a sin offering, and one ram without blemish for peace-offerings.

15 And a basket of unleavened bread, cakes of fine flour mingled with oil, and wafers of unleavened bread anointed with oil, and their meat-offering, and their drink-offer-

16 And the priest shall bring them before the LORD, and shall offer his sin-offering, and his burnt-offering. 17 And he shall offer the ram for a sacrifice of peace-offerings unto the Loan, with the basket of unleavened bread : the priest shall offer also his meat-offering, and his drinkoffering. 18 And the Nazarite shall shave the head of his separation at the door of the tabermacle of the congregation; and shall take the hair of the head of his separation, and put it in the fire which is under the sacrifice of the peace-offerings. 19 And the priest shall take the sodden shoulder of the ram, and one unleavened cake out of the basket, and one unleavened wafer, and shall put them upon the hands of the Nazarite, after the hair of his separation is shaven :

20 And the priest shall wave them for a wave-offering before the LORD : this is holy for the priest, with the wave-breast and heaveshoulder: and after that, the Nazarite may drink wine.

21 This is the law of the Nazarite who hath vowed, and of his offering unto the LORD for his separation, besides that that his hand shall get: according to the vow which he vowed, so he must do after the law of his separation.

22 T And the Loan snake unto Moses, saving.

ing. On this wise ye shall bless the children of I rael. saying unto them,

The Loro bless thee, and keep thee;

25 The LORD make his face shine upon thee, and be gracious unto thee; 36 The Lord lift up his countenance upon thee, and give thee peace.

27 And they shall put my name upon the children of Israel, and I will bless them. CHAP. VII.

1, 10 The princes' offerings. 89 God speaketh to Moses from the mercy-seat.

ND it came to pass on the day that Moses had fully set up the tabernacle, and had as cointed it, and sanctified it, and all the instruments thereof, both the altar and all the vessels thereof, and had anointed them, and ani.ctifie I them.

2 Tust the princes of Israel, heads of the house of their fathers, (who were the princes of the tribes, and were over them that were numbered.) offered.

3 And they brought their offering before the Lord, six covered waggons, and twelve oxen; a waggon for two of the princes, and for each one an ox: and they brought them before the tabermole.

4 And the Loap spake unto Moses, saying,

5 Take if of them, that they may be to do the service of the tabernacle of the con-gregation; and thou shalt give them unto the Levites, to every man according to his EFTTICE.

6 And Moses took the waggons and the oxen, and gave them unto the Levites.

7 Two waggons and four oxen he gave unto the ons of Gershon, according to their service.

8 And four waggons and eight oxen he gave unto the some of Aterari, according unto their service, under the hand of Ithamar the son of Aaron the priest. 9 But unto the sons of Kohath he gave none.

because the service of the sanctuary belonging unto them was, that they should bear upon their shoulders.

10 ¶ And the princes offered for dedicating of the altar, in the day that it was assisted, even the princes offered their offering before the altar.

11 And the LORD said unto Moses, The shall offer their offering, each prince on his day, for the dedicating of the altar. 12 ¶ And he that offered his offering the first

89 And when Moses was gone into the tabernacle of the congregation to speak with him, then he heard the voice of one speaking unto him from off the mercy-seat that was upon the ark of testimony, from between the two cherubins: and he spake unto him. CHAP. VIII. 1 How the lamps are to be lighted. 5 The con-secration of the Leviles: 23 the age and time of their service. ND the Lord spake unto Moses, saving 2 Speak unto Aaron, and say unto him, When thou lightest the lumps; the sexent mps shall give light over against the candestick.

3 And Aaren did so : he lighted the lamps thereof over against the candlestick; as the Loro commanded Moses.

4 And this work of the candlestich was of beaten gold; unto the shuft thereof, unto the flowers thereof, was besten work : according urto the pattern which the Lorn had showed Moses, so he made the candlestick.

5 T And the Loan spake unto Moses, say-

5 Take the Levites from among the children of Israel, and cleanse them.

7 And thus shalt thou do note them, to cleanae them : Sprinkle water of purifyin? upon them, and let them shave all their flesis, and let them wash their clothes, and so make themselves clean.

8 Then let them take a young bullock with his mest-offering, even fine flour mingled with oil, and another young bullock shalt thou take for a sin-offering.

9 And thou shalt bring the Levites before the tabernacie of the congregation : and thou shalt gather the whole assembly of the children of Israel together.

10 And thou shalt bring the Levites before the Loup, and the children of Israel shall put their hands upon the Levites :

11 And Auror shall offer the Levites before the LORD, for an offering of the children of Israel, that they may execute the service of the Long.

12 And the Levites shall lay their hands upon the heads of the bullocks: and thou shalt offer the one for a sin-offering, and the other for a burnt-offering, unto the Lord, to make an atquement for the Levites. 13 And thou shalt set the Levites before offering unto the Loan.

14 Thus shalt thou separate the Levites from among the children of Israel: and the Levites shall be mine. 15 And after that shall the Levites go in to do the service of the tabernacle of the congregation and thou shalt cleanse them, and offer them for an offering.

16 For they are wholly given unto me from among the children of Israel; instead of such as open every womb, even instead of the firstborn of all the children of Israel, have I taken them unto me

17 For all the first-born of the children of Israel are mine, both man and beast : on the my that I amote every first-born in the land of Egypt I sanctified them for myself.

And I have taken the Levites for all the first-born of the children of Israel

19 And I have given the Levites as a gift to Aaron, and to his sons, from among the children of Israel, to do the service of the ehildren of Israel in the taberracle of the rongregation, and to make an atonement for the children of Israel; that there he no plague among the children of Israel, when the children of Israel come nigh unto the nctuary. 20 And Meses, and Aaron, and all the conregation of the children of Israel, did to the Levites according unto all that the Lond commanded Moses concerning the Levites, so did the children of Jarsel unto them.

21 And the Devites were purified, and they washed their clothes : and Aaron offer ed them as an offering before the Loap; an Aarnn made au stonement for them to cleanse them.

1 The passover enjoined. 15. A cloud guidely the Israclites.

A ND the Loan spake unto Mores in the wilderness of Sinai, in the first month of the second year after they were come out of the land of Egypt, saying, 2 Let the children of Israel also keep the passover at his appointed season.

3 is the fourteenth day of this month, at even, ye shall keep it in his appointed season: according to all the rites of it, and accord-ing to all the ceremonies thereof, shall ye keep it

4 And Moses spake unto the children of Israel, that they should keep the persover.

5 And they kept the passover on the four-teenth day of the first month at even in the wilderness of Sinni : according to all that the LORD commanded Moses, so did the children of Israel.

6 ¶ And there were cartain men who were defiled by the dead body of a man, that they could not keep the passover on that day; and they came before Moses and before Aaron on that day.

7 And those men said unto him, We are defiled by the dead body of a man; wherefore are we kept back, that we may not offer an offering of the Logo in his appointed season among the children of larael ? 8 And Moses said unto them, Stand still, and I will hear what the Loan will command concerning you.

9 ¶ And the LORD speire unto Moses, saying, 10 Speak unto the children of Israel, saying, If any man of you, or of your posterity, shall be unclean by reason of a dead body, or be in a journey afar off, yet he shall keep the passover unto the Lord.

11 The fourteenth day of the second month at even they shall keep it, and out it with unleavened bread and bitter herbs.

12 They shall leave none of it unto the morning, now break any bone of it: according to all the ordinances of the passover they shall keep it.

13 But the man that is clean, and is not in a journey, and forbeareth to keep the passover, even the same soul shall be cut of free among his people; because he brought not the ofering of the Lord in his appointed season. that man shall bear his sin.

14 And if a stranger shall sojourn among you, and will keep the passover unto the LORD; according to the ordinance of the passover, and according to the manner there-was born in the land.

15 T Aud on the day that the tabernacle was reared up the cloud covered the taberwere the appearance of fire until the morning.

16 So it was always: the cloud covered it by day, and the appearance of fire by night.

17 And when the cloud was taken up from the tabernacle, then after that the children of Israel journeyed: and in the place where the cloud abode, there the children of Israel pitched their tents.

18 At the commandment of the Loap the children of Israel journeyed: and at the com-mandment of the Loap they pitched: as long as the cloud abode upon the tabernacle they rested in their tents.

19 And when the cloud tarried long upon the taternacle many days, then the children of Israel kept the charge of the LORD, and journeved not. 20 And so it was, when the cloud was a few days upon the tabernacle: according to the commandment of the Loan they abode in fixir tents, and according to the command-ment of the Loan they journeyed. 21 And so it was, when the cloud abode from even unto the morning, and that the cloud was taken up in the morning, then they journeyed: whether it was by day or by night that the cloud was taken up they journeyed.

22 Or whether it were two days, or a month, or a year, that the cloud tarried upon the tabernacle, remaining thereon, the children of Israel abode in their tents, and journeyed not; but when it was taken up they journeyed. 23 At the commandment of the Lord they rested in their tents, and at the commandment of the Lord they journeyed: they kept the charge of the LORD, at the commandment of the Lone by the hand of Moses.

СНАР. Х. 1 The use of the silver trumpets. 33 Moses' blessing.

ND the Lord spake unto Moses, saying. A 2 Make thee two trumpets of silver; of a whole piece shalt thou make them, that thou mayest tre them for the calling of the assembly, and for the journeying of the camps.

3 And when they shall blow with them, all the assembly shall assemble themselves to thee at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.

4 And if they blow but with one trumpet, then the princes, which are heads of the thousands of Israel, shall gather themselves unto thee.

5 When ye blow an alarm, then the camps that lie on the east parts shall go forward.

Il ¶ And it came to pass, on the twentieth day of the second month, in the second year, that the cloud was taken up from off the tabernacle of the testimony.

13 And they first took their journey, according to the commandment of the Loan by the hand of Moses.

la T In the first place went the standard of the camp of the children of Judah, according to their armies: and over his host sees Nahshon the son of Amminadab. 15 And over the host of the tribe of the children of Issachar was Nethaneel the son of Zuar. 16 And over the host of the tribe of the children of Zebulun was Eliab the son of Helon. 17 And the tabernacle was taken down : and the sons of Gershon and the sons of Merari set forward, bearing the tabernacle. 18 ¶ And the standard of the camp of Reu-ben set forward, according to their srmies:

and over his host was Elizur the son of She-19 And over the host of the tribe of the children of Simeon was Shelumiel the son of Zurishaddai. 20 And over the host of the tribe of the children of Gad was Eliasaph the son of Deuel. 21 And the Kohathites set forward, bearing the sanctuary; and the other did set up the tabernacle against they came. 22 T And the standard of the camp of the children of Ephralm set forward, according to their armies: and over his host was Elishama the son of Ammihud.

23 And over the host of the tribe of the children of Manaeseh was Gamaliel the son of 24 And over the host of the tribe of the children of Benjamin was Abidan the son of Gidconi. 25 ¶ And the standard of the camp of the children of Dan set forward, which was the rere-ward of all the camps throughout their hosts: and over his host was Ahiezer the son of Ammishaddai.

26 And over the host of the tribe of the children of Asher, was Pagiel the son of Ocran.

27 And over the bost of the tribe of the children of Naphtali, was Ahira the son of Enan. 28 Thus were the journeyings of the chilwhen they set forward.

29 T And Moses said unto Hobab, the son of Raguel the Midianite, Moses' father-in-law, We are journeying unto the place of which the LORD said, I will give it you: come then with us, and we will do thee good: for the Lond hat h spoken good concerning Israel.

30 And he said unto him, I will not go: but I will depart to mine own land, and to my kincred.

31 And he said, Leave us not, I pray thee; forasmuch as thou knowest how we are to encamp in the wilderness, and thou mayest be to us instead of eyes.

32 And it shall be, if thou go with us, yea, it shall be, that what goodness the LORD shall do usto us, the same will we do unto 33 T And they departed from the mount of the Loap three days' journey: and the ark of the covenant of the Loan went before them in the three days' journey, to search out a resting-place for them.

34 And the cloud of the Loap was upon them by day when they wert out of the camp.

35 And it came to pass, when the ark set forward, that Moses said, Rise up, Loan, and let thire enemies be scattered; and let them that hate thee fice before thee.

35 And when it rested, he said, Return, O Long, unto the many thousands of Israel. CHAP. XI.

9 And when the dew fell upon the camp in the night, the manna fell upon it.

10 Then Moses heard the people weep throughout their families, every man in the door of his tent ; and the anger of the Long was kindled greatly; Moses also was displeased.

11 And Moses said unto the Loap, Wherefore hast thou afflicted thy servant! and wherefore have I not found favour in thy sight, that of Moses, out of his young men, answered, thou layout the hurden of all this people upon and said, 31y lord Moses, forbid them. me ?

1 The names of the men who were sent to search the land: 17 their instructions: 21 their acts: 26 and their relation ND the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,

2 Send thou men, that they may search the land of Canaan, which I give unto the children of Israel: of every tribe of their fathere shall ye send a man, every one a ruler amour them. 3 And Moses, by the commandment of the LOAD, sent them from the wilderness of Paran : all those men were heads of the children of Israel.

4 And these were their names : Of the tribe of Reuben; Shammus, the son of Zaccur. 5 Of the tribe of Simeon; Shaphat, the son of Harl. 6 Of the tribe of Judah; Caleb, the son of Jephunneh.

7 Of the tribe of Issacher; Igal, the sen of

Joseph. 8 Of the tribe of Ephraim; Oshea, the son of Nun. 9 Of the tribe of Benjamin; Palti, the son

10 Of the tribe of Zebulun; Gaddiel, the son of Sodi. Il Of the tribe of Joseph, namely, of the tribe of Manassah; Gaddi, the son of Susi. 12 Of the tribe of Dan; Ammiel, the son of Gemalli.

13 Of the tribe of Asher; Sethur, the son of Michael. 14 Of the tribe of Naphtali; Nabbi, the sea of Vophsi.

15 Of the tribe of Gad; Geuel, the son of Inchi

16 These are the names of the men which Moses sent to spy out the land. And Moses called Oshea the son of Nun, Jehoshua.

17. ¶ And Moses sent them to spy out the land of Canaan, and said unto them, Get you up this way southward, and go up into the mountain:

18 And see the land what it is; and the people that dwelleth therein, whether they be strong or weak, few or many; 19 And what the land is that they dwell in, whether it be good or bad; and what cities they be that they dwell in, whether in tests, or in strong holds;

20 And what the land is, whether it be fat or lean, whether there he wood therein or not: and he ye of good courage, and bring of the fruit of the land. (Now the time was the time of the first ripe grapes.)

21 ¶ So they went up, and searched the land from the wilderness of Zin unto Rehob, as men

23 And they came unto the brook of Esh-col, and cut down from thesee a branch with one cluster of grapes, and they bare it between two upon a staff; and they brought of the pomegramites, and of the figs.

24 The place was called the brook Eshcol, because of the cluster of grapes which the children of Israel cut down from thence.

And they returned from searching of the

larri after forty days.

26 ¶ And they went and came to Moses. and to Aaron, and to all the congregation of the children of Israel, unto the wilderness of Paran, to Karlesh; and brought back word unto them, and unto all the congregation, and shewed them the fruit of the land.

27 And they told him, and said, We came unto the land whither thou sentest us, and rurely it floweth with milk and honey; and this is the fruit of it.

28 Nevertheless, the people be strong that exell in the land, and the cities are walled, and very great: and, moreover, we saw the children of Anak there.

36 And Caleb stilled the people before Moses, and raid, Let us go up at once and possess it; for we are well able to overcome it.

31 But the men that went up with him said, We be not able to go up against the people; for they are stronger than we. 32 And they brought up an evil report of the land which they had searched unto the children of Israel, saying, The land, through which we have gone to search it, is a land that eateth up the inhabitants thereof: and all the people that we saw in it are men of a great stature

33 And there we saw the glants, the sons of Anak, which come of the giants; and we were in our own sight as grasshoppers, and so we were in their sight.

ing up a slander upon the land; 37 Even those men, that did bring up the evil report upon the land, died by the plague before the LORD. 38 But Joshua the son of Nun. and Caleb

the son of Jephunneh, which were of the men that went to search the land, lived still. 39 And Moses told these sayings unto all sweet sayour unto the Long; as ye do, so he the children of Israel: and the people mourned greatly. 40 T And they rose up early in the morning, and gut them up into the top of the mountain, saying, Lo, we be here, and will go up unto the place which the Lord bath promised:

much discouraged because of the way.

5 And the people spake against God, and against Moses, Wherefore have ye brought us up out of Egypt to die in the wilderness?

For there is no bread, neither is there any waking of the Amorites, saying. 22 Let me pass through thy land: we will not turn into the fields, or into the vineyards; we will not drink of the waters of the well; but we will go along by the king's Aigh-way, until we be past thy borders. 23 And Sibon would not suffer Israel to pass through his border; but Sihon gathered all his people together, and went out against Israel into the wilderness: and he came to Jahaz, and fought against Israel: 24 And Israel smote him with the edge of he sword, and possessed his land from Arnon

CHAP. XXX.

! Vows are not to be broken. 9 Of a widow's vow, or her that is divorced.

ND Moses spake unto the heads of the A tribes concerning the children of Israel, saying. This is the thing which the Loan hath commanded.

2 If a man vow a vow unto the LORD, or mear an oath to bind his soul with a bond; he hall not break his word, he shall do according to all that proceedeth out of his mouth.

2 If a woman also vow a vow unto the LORD, and bind herself by a bond, being in her father's house in ber youth;

4 And her father hear her vow and her bond wherewith she hath bound her soul, and her ther shall hold his peace at her: then all her tows shall stand, and every bond wherewith the hath bound her soul shall stand.

5 But if her father disallow her in the day that he heareth; not any of her vows, or of her bonds, wherewith she hath bound her soul, shall stand : and the Loup shall forgive her, because her father disallowed her.

6 And if she had at all an husband when she vowed, or uttered aught out of her lips, wherewith she bound her soul;

7 And her husband heard it, and held his peace at her in the day that he heard it : then ber vows shall stand, and her bonds wherewith she bound her soul shall stand.

8 But if her husband disallow her on the day that he heard it; then he shall make her wow which she vowed, and that which she uttered with her lips, wherewith she bound her soul, of none effect : and the Loan shall forgive ber. 9 But every vow of a widow, and of her that is divorced, wherewith they have bound their souls, shall stand against her.

10 And if she vowed in her husband's house, or bound her soul by a bond with an oath;

11 And ber husband heard it, and held his peace at her, and disallowed her not; then all her vows shall stand, and every bond wherewith she bound her soul shall stand.

12 But if her husband bath utterly made them void on the day he heard them; then whatsoever proceeded out of her lips concerning her vows, or concerning the bond of her soul, shall not stand; her husband hath made them void; and the Loan shall forgive

13 Every vow, and every binding oath to 18 But all the women-children that have affect the soul, her husband may establish it, not known a man by lying with him, keep or her husband may make it void

14 But if her husband altogether hold his peace at her from day to day; then he osta-blisheth all her vows, or all her bonds, which are upon her: he confirmeth them, because he held his peace at her in the day that he heard them

15 But if he shall any ways make them void, after that he bath heard them; then he shall bear her iniquity.

16 These are the statutes which the Long commanded Moses, between a man and his wife, between the father and his daughter, being yet in her youth in her father's house.

CHAP. XXXI. 1 The Midionites spoiled, and Balaam slain.

A ND the LORD spake unto Moses, saying, 2 Avenge the children of Israel of the Midianites; afterward shalt thou be gathered unto thy people.

3 And Moses spake unto the people, saying, Arm some of yourselves unto the war, and let them go against the Midianites, and avenge the Lord of Midian.

4 Of every tribe a thousand, throughout all the tribes of Israel, shall ye send to the war.

5 So there were delivered out of the thousands of Israel, a thousand of every tribe, twelve thousand armed for war.

6 And Moses sent them to the war, a thousand of every tribe, them, and Phinehas the son of Eleazar the priest, to the war, with the holy instruments, and the trumpets to blow in his hand. 7 And they warred against the Midianites, as the Loan commanded Moses; and they slew all the males. 8 And they slew the kings of Midian, besides the rest of them that were slain; namely, Evi, and Rekem, and Zur, and Hur, and Reba, five kings of Midian: Balaam also, the son of Beor, they slew with the sword.

9 And the children of Israel took all the women of Midian captives, and their little ones, and took the spoil of all their cattle, and all their flocks, and all their goods.

10 And they burnt all their cities wherein they dwelt, and all their goodly casties, with nre.

11 And they took all the spoil, and all the prey, both of men and of beasts.

12 And they brought the captives, and the prey, and the spoil, unto Moses, and Eleazar the priest, and unto the congregation of the children of Israel, unto the camp at the plains of Moab, which are by Jordan, near Jericho. 13 T And Moses, and Eleazar the priest, and all the princes of the congregation, went forth to meet them without the camp.

14 And Moses was wroth with the officers of the host, with the captains over thousands, and captains over hundreds, which came from the battle.

15 And Moses said unto them, Have ye saves all the women alive?

16 Behold, these caused the children of Israel, through the counsel of Balaam, to commit trespass against the Loap in the matter of Peor, and there was a plague among the congregation of the Loan 17 Now therefore, kill every male among the little ones, and kill every woman that hath known man by lying with him.

19 And do ye abide without the camp seven days: whosoever hath killed any person, and whosoever bath touched any siain, purify both yourselves and your captives on the third day, and on the seventh day.

20 And purify all your raiment, and all that is made of skins, and all work of goats' hair, and all things made of wood.

21 ¶ And Eleazar the priest said unto the men of war which went to the battle, This is the ordinance of the law which the LORD commanded Moses;

22 Only the gold, and the silver, the brass, the iron, the tin, and the lead,

23 Every thing that may abide the fire, ye shall make it go through the fire, and it shall be clean; nevertheless, it shall be purified with the water of separation; and all that abideth not the fire ye shall make go through the water.

24 And ye shall wash your clothes on the seventh day, and ye shall be clean, and after-ward ye shall come into the camp.

25 T And the Lord spake unto Moses,

saying,

26 Take the sum of the prey that was taken, both of man and of beast, thou, and Eleazar the priest, and the chief fathers of the congregation:

27 And divide the prey into two parts, between them that took the war upon them, who went out to battle, and between all the congregation;

23 And levy a tribute unto the Lorp of the men of war which went out to battle: one soul of five hundred, both of the persons, and of the beeves, and of the asses, and of the

29 Take it of their half, and give it unto Eleazar the priest, for an heave-offering of the Loan.

30 And of the children of Israel's half thou shalt take one portion of fifty, of the persons, of the beeves, of the asses, and of the flocks, of all manner of beasts, and give them unto the Levites, which keep the charge of the tabernacle of the Lord.

31 And Moses and Eleazar the priest did as the LORD commanded Moses.

32 And the booty, being the rest of the prey which the men of war had caught, was six hundred thousand and seventy thousand and five thousand sheep.

33 And threescore and twelve thousand beeves, 34 And threescore and one thousand

35 And thirty and two thousand persons in all, of women that had not known man by lying with him.

36 And the balf, which was the portion of them that went out to war, was in number three hundred thousand and seven and thirty thousand and five hundred sheep :

37 And the Lord's tribute of the sheep was six hundred and threescore and fifteen.

38 And the beeves were thirty and six thousand, of which the Load's tribute was threesenre and twelve.

39 And the asses were thirty thousand and five hundred, of which the Lond's tribute mas threescore and one.

40 And the persons were sixteen thousand, of which the house stribute was thirty and two persons.

41 And Moses gave the tribute which was the Lord's heave-offering unto Eleazar the priest; as the Loan commanded Moses.

42 And of the children of Israel's half. which Moses divided from the men that hundred sheep, 44 And thirty and six thousand beeves. 45 And thirty thousand asses and five hun-

46 And sixteen thousand persons,) 47 Even of the children of Israel's half. Moses took one portion of fifty, both of man and of beast, and gave them unto the Le vites which kept the charge of the tabernacle of the Loap; as the Loar summanded Moses.

48 § And the officers which were over thousands of the host, the captains of thousands, and captains of hundreds, came near unto

Moses:

49 And they said unto Moses, Thy servants have taken the sum of the men of war which are under our charge, and there lacketh not one man of us.

50 We have therefore brought an oblation for the Loan, what every man hath gotten, of jewels of gold, chains, and bracelets, rings, ear-rings, and tablets, to make an atonement for our souls before the LORD.

51 And Moses and Eleazar the priest took the gold of them, even all wrought jewels.

52 And all the gold of the offering that they offered up to the Lorn, of the captains of thousands, and of the captains of hundreds, was sixteen thousand seven hundred and fifty shekels.

53 (For the men of war had taken spoil, every man for himself.)

54 And Moses and Eleazar the priest took the gold of the captains of thousands and of hundreds, and brought it into the tabernacle of the congregation, for a memorial for the children of Israel before the Loan. CHAP. XXXII.

The Reubenites and Gadites sue for their in-bon, and Eleaieh, and Kirjehaim, 38 And Nebo, and Baal-meon. (their names being changed,) and Shibmah: and gave other names unto the cities which they builded. 39 And the children of Machir the son of Manasseh went to Gilead, and took it, and dispossessed the Amorite which was in it. 40 And Moses gave Gilead unto Machir the son of Manassen; and he dwelt therein. 41 And Jair the son of Manasseh went and took the small towns thereof, and called them Havoth-jair.

42 And Nobah went and took Kenath, and the villages thereof, and called it Nobah, after his own name. CHAP. XXXIII.

1 Two and forty journeys of the Israelites. 50 The Canaunites are to be destroyed.

THESE are the journeys of the children of Israel, which went forth out of the land of Egypt, with their armies, under the hand of Moses and Auron.

2 And Moses wrote their goings out according to their journeys, by the commandment of the Lours and these are their journeys according to their goings out.

48 And they departed from the mountains of Abarim, and pitched in the plains of Moab, by Jordan near Jericho.

49 And they pitched by Jordan, from Bethjesimoth even unto Abel-shittim, in the plains of Moab. 50 T And the Lord spake unto Moses in the plains of Moab, by Jordan sear Jeriche, saying, 31 Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them, When ye are passed over Jordan into the land of Cansan; 52 Then ye shall drive out all the imbabitants of the land from before you, and destroy all their pictures, and destroy all their molten images, and quite pluck down all their high places 53 And ye shall disposess the inhabitants of the land, and dwell therein: for I have given you the land to possess it. 54 And ye shall divide the land by lot for an inheritance among your families; and to the more ye shall give the more inheritance, and to the lewer ye shall give the less inheritance: every man's inheritance shall be in the place where his lot faileth; according to the tribes of your fathers ye shall inherit.

55 But if ye will not drive out the inhabitants of the land from before you; then it shall come to pass, that those which ye let remain of them shall be pricks in your eyes, and thorne in your sides, and shall vex you in the land wherein ye dwell. 56 Moreover, it shall come to pass, that I shall do unto you as I thought to do unto Moses distundeth them from the opinion of their own righteousness, by rehearsing their several rebellions.

HEAR, O Israel: Thou art to pass over Jordan this day, to go in to possess na-tions greater and mightier than thyself, cities great, and fenced up to heaven;

2 A people great and tall, the children of the Anakims, whom thou knowest, and of whom thou hast heard say, Who can stand be-fore the children of Anak!

3 Understand therefore this day, that the Loan thy God is he which goeth over before thee as a consuming fire; he shall destroy them, and he shall bring them down before thy face : so shalt thou drive them out, and destroy them quickly, as the Loap hath said unto thee.

4 Speak not thou in thine heart, after that the Loan thy God hath cast them out from before thee, saying, For my righteousness the Loan hath brought me in to possess this land; but for the wickedness of these nations the Long doth drive them out from before thee.

5 Not for thy righteousness, or for the uprightness of thine heart, dost thou go to possess their land; but for the wickedness of these nations the Loap thy God doth drive them out from before thee, and that he may perform the word which the Load sware unto thy fathers. Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob.

6 Understand therefore that the LORD thy God giveth thee not this good land to possess it for thy rightoousness; for thou art a stiff-necked people.

7 T Remember, and forget not, how thou provokedst the Lorp thy God to wrath in the wilderness: from the day that thou didst de-part out of the land of Egypt, until ye came unto this place, ye have been rebellious against the Lorp.

8 Also in Horeb ye provoked the LORD to wrath, so that the Loan was angry with you, to have destroyed you.

9 When I was gone up into the mount, to receive the tables of stone, even the tables of the covenant which the Loap made with you, then I abode in the mount forty days and forty nights: I neither did eat bread nor drink water : 10 And the Loap delivered unto me two tables of stone, written with the finger of Gnd; and on them was written according to all the words which the Lorn spake with you in the mount, out of the midse of the fire, in the day of the assembly.

11 And it came to pass at the end of forty days and forty nights, that the Loan gave me the two tables of stone, even the tables of the brought them out to sky them in the wilder-

15 So I turned and came down from the mount, and the mount burned with fire : and the two tables of the covenant were in my two hands. 16 And I looked, and behold, ye had sinned against the Loap your God, and had made you a molten calf: ye had turned aside quickly out of the way which the Loap had commanded you.

17 And I took the two tables, and cast them out of my two hands, and brake them before your eyes

18 And I fell down before the Loan, as at the first, forty days and forty nights: I did neither eat bread nor drink water, because of all your sins which we sinned, in doing wick-edly in the sight of the Loap, to provoke him to anger.

19 (For I was afraid of the anger and hot displeasure wherewith the LORD was wroth against you to destroy you.) But the Loan hearkened unto me at that time also.

20 And the Lord was very angry with Aaron to have destroyed him: and I prayed for

Aaron also the same time

21 And I took your sin, the calf which ye had made, and burnt it with fire, and stamped it, and ground it very small, even until it was as small as dust: and I cast the dust thereof into the brook that descended out of the mount.

22 And at Taberah, and at Massah, and at Kibroth-hattaavah. ye provoked the Loan to wrath.

23 Likewise, when the Long sent you from Kadesh-barnea, saving, Go up and possess the land which I have given you; then ye rebelled against the commandment of the Loan your God, and ye believed him not, nor hearkened to his voice.

24 Ye have been rebellious against the Loap from the day that I knew you. 25 Thus I fell down before the Loan forty days and forty nights, as I fell down at the first; because the Loan had said he would destroy you.

26 I prayed therefore unto the Loap, and said, O Lord Gon, destroy not thy people, and thine inheritance, which thou hast redeem ed through thy greatness, which thou hast brought forth out of Egypt with a mighty hand. 27 Remember our servants, Abraham, Isaac. and Jacob : look not unto the stubbornness of

62 And ye shall be left few in number, whereas ye were as the stars of heaven for multitude; because thou wouldest not obey

the voice of the Loan thy God. 63 And it shall come to pass, that, as the LORD rejoiced over you to do you good, and to multiply you; so the LORD will rejoice over you to destroy you, and to bring you to nought; and ye shall be plucked from off the land whi-64 And the Lord shall scatter thee among all people from the one end of the earth even unto the other; and there thou shalt serve other gods, which neither thou nor thy fathers have known, even wood and stone. 65 And among these nations shalt thou find no ease, neither shall the sole of thy foot have rest : but the Lorn shall give thee there a trembling heart, and failing of eyes, and sorrow of mind: 66 And thy life shall hang in doubt before thee, and thou shalt fear day and night, and shalt have none assurance of thy life:

67 In the morning thou shalt say, God it were even! and at even thou shalt say Would God it were morning! for the fear of thine heart wherewith thou shalt fear, and for the sight of thine eyes which thou shalt see.

68 And the Loan shall bring thee into Egypt again with ships, by the way whereof I spake unto thee, Thou shalt see it no more again: and there ye shall be sold unto your enemies for bond-men and bond-women, and no man shall buy you.

CHAP. XXIX. 2 An exhortation to obedience. 29 Secret things belong unto God.

THESE are the words of the covenant which the LORD commanded Moses to make with the children of Israel in the land of Moab, besides the covenant which he made with them in Horeb.

2 ¶ And Moses called unto all Israel, and said unto them, Ye have seen all that the I.o2D did before your eyes in the land of Egypt, unto Pharaon, and unto all his servants, and unto all his land : 3 The great temptations which thine eyes have seen, the signs, and those great miracles: 4 Yet the LORD hath not given you an heart to perceive, and eyes to see, and ears to bear, unto this day.

5 And I have led you forty years in the wilderness: your clothes are not waxen old upon you, and thy shoe is not waxen old upon thy foot.

6 Ye have not eaten bread, neither have ye drunk who or strong drink; that ye might know that I am the Long your God

7 And when ye came unto this place, Sihon the king of Heshbon, and Og the king of Bashan, came out against us unto battle, and we smote them:

8 And we took their land, and gave it for an inheritance unto the Reubenites, and to the Gadites, and to the half-tribe of Manasseh.

9 Keep therefore the words of this cove-nant, and do them, that ye may prosper in all

11 Your little ones, your wives, and thy stranger that is in thy camp, from the hewer of the wood unto the drawer of the water:

12 That thou shouldest enter into covenant with the Long thy God, and into his oath, which the Loan thy God maketh with thee tais das ;

13 That he may establish thee to-day for a people unto himself, and that he may be unto thee a God, as he hath said unto thee, and as he had sworn unto thy fathers, to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob.

It Neither with you only do I make this covenant and this oath;

15 But with him that standeth here with us this day before the Loan our God, and also with him that is not here with us this day : 16 (For ye know how we have dwelt in the

had of Exppt, and how we came through the sations which we passed by: 17 And we have seen their abominations, and their idols, wood and stone, silver and 21 And the Loap shall separate him unto evil out of all the tribes of Israel, according to all the curses of the covenant that are written in this book of the law:

22 So that the generation to come of your children, that shall rise up after you, and the stranger that shall come from a far land, shall say, when they see the plagues of that land, and the sicknesses which the Lord hath laid upon it:

23 And that the whole land thereof is brimstone, and salt, and burning, that it is not sown, nor beareth, nor any grass groweth therein, like the overthrow of Sodom and Gomorrah, Admah and Zeboim, which the Loan overthrew in his anger, and in his wrath:

24 Even all nations shall say, Wherefore bath the Loan done thus unto this land? What meaneth the heat of this great anger

25 Then men shall say, Because they have forsaken the covenant of the Loan God of their fathers, which he made with them, when he brought them forth out of the land of Egypt: 26 For they went and served other gods, and worshipped them, gods whom they knew not, and maom be had not given unto them :

ND it shall come to pass, when all the-e A things are come upon they the bic-sing and the curse, which I have -e' before thre, and thou shall call them to militi amount all the nations whither the Loan thy God bath driven thee,

2 And shalt return unto the Loan thy God, and shalt obey his voice, according to all that I command thee this day, thou and thy colldren, with all thine heart, and with all thy soul;

3 That then the Loap thy God will turn thy captivity, and have comparsion upon thee, and will return, and gather thee from all the nations whither the Loan thy God hath scattered thee.

4 If any of thine be driven out unto the outmost parts of heaven, from thence will the Loan thy God gather thee, and from thence will be fetch thee.

5 And the Loap thy God will bring thee into the land which thy fathers possessed, and thou shalt possess it: and he will do thee good, and multiply thee above thy fathers. 6 And the Lord thy God will circumcise thine heart, and the heart of thy eed, to love the Lozn thy God with all thine heart, and with all thy soul, that thou mayest live. 7 And the Loan thy God will put all these curses upon thine enemies, and on them that bate thee, which persecuted thee. 8 And thou shalt return and obey the voice of the Loan, and do all his commandments, which I command thee this day.

9 And the Loan thy God will make thee plenteous in every work of three hand, in the fruit of thy body, and in the fruit of thy ca.tle, and in the fruit of thy land, for good : for the Loan will again rejoice over thee for good, as he rejoiced over thy fathers; 10 If thou shalt hearken unto the voice of the Long thy God, to keep his commandments and his statutes, which are written in this book of the law, and if thou turn unto the Loan thy God with all thine heart, and with all thy soul.

11 For this commandment which I command thee this day, it is not hidden from thee, neither is it far off.

12 It is not in beaven, that thou shouldest say, Who shall go up for us to heaven and bring it unto us, that we may hear it, and 13 Neither is it beyond the sea, that thou shouldest say, Who shall go over the sea for us, and bring it unto us, that we may hear it, and do it?

14 But the word is very nigh unto thee, in thy mouth, and in thy heart, that then not est do it.

and to Jacob, to give them. CHAP. XXXI.

1 Moses encourageth the people, and Joshua: 9 he delivereth the law unto the priests. God givelh a charge to Joshua, 19 and a song to testify against the people.

A ND Moses went and spake these words unto all Israel unto all Israel.

And he said unto them, I am an hundred and twenty years old this day: I can no more go out and come in : also the Loro bath said unto me, Thou shalt not go over this Jordan.

3 The Loap thy God, he will go over before thee, and he will destroy these nations from before thee, and thou shalt possess them: and Joshua, he shall go over before thee, as the Lorp math said.

4 And the Lorp shall do unto them as he di I to Sihon and to Og, kings of the Amorites; and to the land of them whom he de-stroved.

5 And the Loan shall give them up before your face, that ye may do unto them according unto all the commandments which I have commanded you.

6 Be strong, and of a good courage, fear not, nor be afraid of them : for the Loan thy God. he if is that doth go with thee; he will not fail thee, nor forsake thee.

7 T And Moses called unto Joshua, and said unto him in the sight of all Israel, Be strong, and of a good courage : for thou must go with this people unto the land which the LORD hath worn unto their fathers to give them; and thou shalt cause them to inherit it.

3 And the Loan, he if is that doth go before thee: he will be with thee, he will not fail thee, neither forsake thee; fear not, neither be themayed.

9 W And Moses wrote this law, and delirected it unto the priests the sons of Levi, which bare the ark of the covenant of the Losp, and unto all the elders of Israel.

10 And Moses commanded them, saying, At the end of every seven years, in the soemulty of the year of release, in the feast of 'abernacles.

When all Israel is come to appear before the Loan thy God, in the place which he shall encose, thou shalt read this law before all rael in their hearing.

> law; 13 And that their children, which have not known any thing, may hear, and learn to fear the LORD your God, as long as ye live in the land whither ye go over Jordan to possess

14 ¶ And the Lorp said unto Moses, Behold, thy days approach that thou must die : call Joshua, and present yourselves in the tabermade of the congregation, that I may give him a charge. And Moses and Joshua went, and presented themselves in the tabernacle of the congreration.

15 And the Loap appeared in the tabernacle in a pillar of a cloud; and the pillar of the cloud stood over the door of the tabernacie. 16 T And the Loan said unto Moses, Behold, thou shalt sleep with thy fathers; and this people will rise up, and go a whoring after the gods of the strangers of the land whither they go to be among them, and will forsake me, and break my covenant which I have made with them.

17 Then my anger shall be kindled against them in that day, and I will forsake them, and I will hide my face from them, and they shall be devoured, and many evils and troubles shall befall them; so that they will say in that day. Are not these evils come upon us, because our God is not among us?

18 And I will surely hide my face in that day, for all the evils which they shall have wrought, in that they are turned unto other gods.

19 Now therefore write ye this song for you, and teach it the children of Israel: put it in their mouths, that this song may be a witness for me against the children of Israel.

20 For when I shall have brought them into the land which I sware unto their fathers, that floweth with milk and honcy, and they shall have eaten and filled themselves, and waxen fat; then will they turn unto other gods, and serve them, and provoke me, and break my covenant.

21 And it shall come to pass, when many. evils and troubles are befallen them, that this song shall testify against them as a witness; for it shall not be forgotten out of the mouths of their seed: for I know their imagination which they go about, even now, before I have brought them into the land which I sware. 22 I Moses therefore wrote this song the same day, and taught it the children of Israel.

23 And he gave Joshua the son of Nun a charge, and said, Be strong, and of a good courage : for thou shalt bring the children of Israel into the land which I sware unto them; and I will be with thee.

24 T And it came to pass, when Moses had made an end of writing the words of this law in a book, until they were finished.

25 That Moses commanded the Levites which bare the ark of the covenant of the Load, saying,

26 Take this book of the law, and put it in the side of the ark of the covenant of the Lord your God, that it may be there for a witness against thee.

27 For I know thy rebellion, and thy stiff men, and neck : behold, while I am yet alive with you tribes, and your officers, that I may speak these words in their ears, and call heaven and mineful, and hast for otten God that formed earth to record against them.

29 For I know that after my death we will i utterly corrupt yourselves, and turn aside them, because of the provoking of his sons and from the way which I alive commanded your of his damphters. and evil will befall you in the latter days, be-1 20 And 16 mid. I will hide my face from your hands.

30 And Moses spake in the ears of all the congregation of Israel the words of this roug, that which is not God; they have provoked me until they were ended.

15 And it shall be, that be that is taken with the accursed thing shall be burnt with fire, he and all that he hath; because he hath transgressed the covenant of the LORD, and because he hath wrought folly in Israel.

16 T So Joshua rose up early in the morning, and brought Israel by their tribes; and

17 And he brought the family of Judah; and he took the family of the Zarhites: and he man; and Zabdi was taken: 18 And he brought his household man by man; and Achan, the son of Carmi, the son of Zabdi, the son of Zerah, of the tribe of Judah,

19 And Joshua said unto Achan, My son, give, I pray thee, glory to the Loan God of Israel, and make confession unto him: and bour thither; for they are i'm few.

29 And Achan answered Joshua, and said. Indeed I have sinned against the LORD God of Israel, and thus and thus have . done:

23 ¶ So Joshua sent messengers, and they ran unto the tent; and behold, it was hid in ley between them and Ai his tent, and the silver under it.

23 And they took them out of the midst of the tent, and brought them unto Joshua. and unto all the children of Israel, and laid them out before the LORD.

24 And Joshua, and all Israel with him, took Achan the son of Zerah, and the silver, and the garment, and the wedge of gold, and his sons, and his daughters, and his oxen, and his asses, and his sheep, and his tent, and all that he had; and they brought them unto the vallev of Achor.

25 And Joshua said, Why hast thou troubled us! the Lord shall trouble thee this da . And all Israel stoned him with stones, and burned them with fire, after they had stoned them with stones.

26 And they raised over him a great heap of stones unto this day. So the Loan turned from the fierconess of his anger: wherefore the name of that place was called, The valley of Achor unto this day.

15 And Joshua and all Israel made as if they were beaten before them, and fled by the way of the wilderness.

15 And all the people that were in Al were called together to pursue after them: and they pursued after Joshua, and were drawn away from the city.

17 And there was not a man left in Ai. or Beth-el, that went not out after Israel; and they left the city open, and pursued after Israel.

16 And the Loap said unto Joshua, Stretch out the spear that is in thy hand toward Ai; for I will give it into thine hand. At ! Joshua stretched out the socar that he had in his hand toward the city.

19 And the amough arose quickly out of their place, and they ran as soon as he had stretched out his hand; and they entered into the city, and took it, and insted, and set the 28 And Joshua burnt Ai. and made it an heap for ever, even a desolation unto this day.

29 And the king of Ai he hanged on a tree until even-tide; and as soon as the sun was down. Joshua commanded that they should ta' e his carease down from the tree, and cast it at the entering of the cate of the city, and raise thereon a zreat heap of stones, that rematach unto this day.

130 T Then Joshua built an altar unto the Loro God of Israel in mount Ebal.

31 As Moses the servant of the Lord commanded the children of Israel, as it is written in the book of the law of Moses, An altar of whole stones, over which no man hath lifted up any iron: and they offered thereon burntofferings unto the Loap, and sacrificed peace offerings.

32 And he wrote there upon the stones a copy of the law of Moses, which he wrote in the presence of the children of Israel.

33 And all Israel, and their elders, and offcers, and their judges, stood on this side the ark, and on that side, before the priests the Levites, which bare the ark of the covenant of the Lore, as well the stranger, as he that was born among them; half of them over against mount Gerizim, and half of them over against mount Ebal; as Moses the servant of the Loan had commanded before, that they should bless the people of Israel.

and Beeroth, and Kirjatt - carim. 18 And the children of Israel smote them not, because the princes of the congregation had sworn unto them by the LORD God of Israel. And all the congregation murmured against the princes.

19 But all the princes said unto all the con-grecation, We have sworn unto them by the Long God of Israel: now therefore, we may not touch them. 20 This we will do to them; we will even let them live, lest wrath be upon us, because of the oath which we sware unto them.

21 And the princes said unto them, Let them live: but let them be hevers of wood and drawers of water unto all the congreas the princes had promised them.

22 5 And Joshua called for them, and he spake unto them, saying, Wherefore have ye beguiled us, saying. We are very far from you; when ye dwell among us?

al the word of Joshua.

NOW it came to pass, when Adont-zedec king of Jerusalem had heard how Joshua had taken Ai, and had utterly destroyed K; as he had done to Jericho and her king, so he had done to Ai and her king; and how the in-habitants of Gibeon had made peace with Israel, and were among them;

2 That they feared greatly, because Gibeon was a great city, as one of the royal cities, and because it was greater than Al, and all the men thereof acre mighty.

3 Wherefore Adoni-zedes king of Jerusa-lem sent unto Hoham king of Hebron, and unto Piram king of Jarmuth, and unto Japhia king of Lachish, and unto Debir king of Eglon, saying,

A Come up unto me, and help me, that we may unite Giboon; for it hath made peace with Joshua, and with the children of Israel.

5 Therefore the five kings of the Amorites. the king of Jerusalem, the king of Hebron, the king of Jarmuth, the king of Lachish, the king of Eglon, gathered themselves together, and went up, they and all their hosts, and encamped before Gibeon, and made war king of Eglon. against it.

8 T And the men of Gibeon sent unto Joshua to the camp to Gilgal, saying, Slack not thy kand from thy servants; come up to us quickly, and save us, and help us: for all the kings of the Amorites that dwell in the mountains are gathered together against us,

7 So Joshua ascended from Gilgal, he, and all the people of war with him, and all the mighty men of valour.

8 T And the Loan said unto Joshua, Fear them not: for I have delivered them into thine hand: there shall not a man of them stand before thee.

9 Joshua therefore came unto them sudden-of them entered into fenced cities.

21 And all the people returned to the camp to Joshua at Makkedah in peace : none moved his tongue against any of the children of Israel

22 Then said Joshua, Open the mouth of the cave, and bring out those five kings unto me

And they came near, and put their feet upon the necks of them.

25 And Joshua said unto them, Fear not, nor be dismayed, be strong and of good courage: for thus shall the Logo do to all your enemies against whom ye fight.

26 And afterward Joshua smote them, and slew them, and hanged them on five trees: and they were hanging upon the trees until the evening.

20 For it was of the Loan to harden their hearts, that they should come against Israel in battle that he might destroy them utterly, and that they might have no favour, but that he might destroy them; as the Lord commanded Moses.

21 ¶ And at that time came Joshua, and cut off the Anakims from the mountains; from Hebron, from Debic, from Anab, and from all the mountains of Judah, and from all the mountains of Israel: Joshua destroyed them Lasharon, one: utterly with their cities.

22 There was none of the Anakims left in the land of the children of Israel; only in Gaza, in Gath, and in Ashdod, there reof Naphtali, even for the children of Naphtali according to their families.

33 And their coast was from Heleph, from

Allon to Zasosonim, and Adami, Nekeb, and Jabneci, unto Lakum; and the out-goings thereof were at Jordan :

24 And then the coast turneth westward to Azaoth-tabor, and goeth out from thence to Hukkok, and reacheth to Zebulun on the south side, and reacheth to Asher on the west side, and to Judah upon Jordan toward the sun-rising.

35 And the fenced cities are Ziddim, Zer, and Hammath, Rakkath, and Cunereth,

36 And Adamah, and Ramah, and Hazor,

37 And Kedesh, and Edrei, and En-bazor, 38 And Iron, and Migdal-el, Horem, and Beth-anath, and Beth-shemesh: nineteen cities with their villages. 39 This is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Naphtali, according to their families, the cities and their villages.

40 ¶ And the seventh lot came out for the tribe of the children of Dan, according to their families.

41 And the coast of their inheritance was Zorah, and Eshtaol, and Ir-shemesh, 42 And Shaalabbim, and Ajalon, and Jethlab.

43 And Elon, and Thimnathah, and Ekron, 44 And Eltekeh, and Gibbethon, and Baa-

45 And Johnd, and Bene-berak, and Gathrimmon.

46 And Me-jarkon, and Rakkon, with the border before Japho.

47 And the coast of the children of Dan went out too little for them; therefore the children of Dan went up to fight against Leshem, and took it, and smote it with the edge of the sword, and possessed it, and dwelt therein, and called Leshem, Dan, after the name of Dan their father.

48 This is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Dan, according to their families,

49 T When they had made an end of dividing the land for inheritance by their coasts, the children of Israel gave an inheritance to Joshun the son of Nun among them:

50 According to the word of the Loan they gave bim the city which he asked, even Timh-serah in mount Ephraim: and he built the city, and dwelt therein.

51 These are the inheritances which Elexzar the priest, and Joshua the son of Nun, and the heads of the fathers of the tribes of the children of Israel, divided for an inheritance by lot in Shiloh before the Loan, at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation. So they made an end of dividing the country. CHAP. XX.

3 And Joshua said unto the children of Israel. How long are ye slack to go to possess hath given you?

4 Give out from among you three men for each tribe; and I will send them, and they shall rise and go through the land, and describe it according to the inheritance of them; and they shall come again to me.

5 And they shall divide it into seven parts : Judah shail abide in their coasts on the south, and the house of Joseph shall abide in their coasts on the norta.

6 Ye shall therefore describe the land into seven parts, and bring the description nither to me, that I may cast lots for you here before the Lorp our God.

7 But the Levites have no part among you; for the priesthood of the Loan is their inheritunce: and Gad, and Reuben, and half the tribe of Manasseh, have received their inheritance beyond Jordan on the east, which Moses the servant of the Lord gave them.

8 ¶ And the men arose, and went away: and Joshua charged them that went to describe the land, saying, Go, and walk through the land, and describe it, and come again to me, that I may here cast lots for you before the LORD in Shiloh.

CHAP. XX 1 God commandeth, 7 and the Israelites appoint, six cities of refuge.

HE Lond also spake unto Joshua, saying, 2 Speak to the children of Israel, saying. Appoint out for you cities of refuge, whereof I spake unto you by the hand of Moses:

3 That the slaver that killeth any person mnawares, and unwittingly, may flee thither : and they shall be your refuge from the avenger of blood.

4 And when he that doth flee unto one of those cities shall stand at the entering of the gate of the city, and shall declare his cause in the ears of the elders of that city; they shall take him into the city unto them, and give him a place, that he may dwell among them, 5 And if the avenger of blood pursue after him, then they shall not deliver the slaver up into his hand; because he smote his neighbour unwittingly, and bated him not be in the father of Anak, (which city is Hebron) foretime. 6 And he shall dwell in that city, until he stand before the congregation for judgment, and until the death of the high priest that shall be in those days: then shall the slayer return, and come unto his own city, and unto his own house, unto the city from whence he fled.

7 T And they appointed Kedesh in Galilee in mount Naphtali, and Shechem in mount Ephraim, and Kirjath-arba, (which is Hebron) in the mountain of Judah. 8 And on the other side Jordan, by Jericho eastward, they assigned Bezer in the wilderness upon the plain, out of the tribe of Reu-ben, and Ramoth in Gilead out of the tribe of

Gad, and Golan in Bashan out of the tribe of Manasseh. 9 These were the cities appointed for all the children of Israel, and for the stranger that sojourneth among them, that whosoever killeth any person at unawares might flee thither, and not die by the hand of the avenger of blood, until he stood before the congregation. CHAP. XXI. I Eigh and forty cities given by lot unlo the Leviter. 43 God gave them rest. HEN came near the heads of the fathers of the Levites unto Eleazar the priest, and unto Joshua the son of Nun, and unto the heads of the fathers of the triles of the children of Israel;

2 And they spake unto them at Shiloh in the land of Canaan, saying, The Lord com-manded by the hand of Moses, to give us clties to dwell in, with the suburbs thereof for our cattle. 3 And the children of Israel gave unto the Levites out of their inheritance, at the commandment of the Lorp, these cities and their suburbs. 4 And the lot came out for the families of the Kohathites; and the children of Aaron the priest, mkich were of the Levites, had by lot out of the tribe of Judah, and out of t'.

tribe of Simeon, and out of the tribe of Beujamin, thirteen cities. 5 And the rest of the children of Kohath had by lot out of the families of the tribe of

Ephraim, and out of the tribe of Dan, and out of the half-tribe of Manassch, ten cities. 6 And the children of Gershon had by lot out of the families of the tribe of Issachar, and out of the tribe of Asher, and out of the tribe of Naphtali, and out of the half-tribe of Manasseh in Bashan, thirteen cities.

7 The children of Merari, by their families.

had out of the tribe of Reuben, and out of the tribe of Gad, and out of the tribe of Zebulun, twelve cities. 8 And the children of Israel gave by lot unto the Levites these cities with their suburbs, as the Lord commanded by the hand of Moses. 9 % And they gave out of the tribe of the children of Judah, and out of the tribe of the children of Simeon, these cities which are Arr mentioned by name, 10 Which the children of Aaron, being of the families of the Kohathites, who were of the children of Levi, had: (for theirs was the '.- first lot.)

11 And they gave them the city of Arba, suburbs, 170 11 thereof round about it. 12 But the fields of the city, and the villages thereof, gave they to Caleb the son of Jephunneh, for his possession.

with her suburbs: four cities. 19 All the cities of the children of Aaron, the priests, were thirteen cities with their suburbs.

20 T And the families of the children of Kobath, the Levites which remained of the children of Kohath, even they had the cities of their lot out of the tribe of Ephraim. 21 For they gave them Shechem with her suburbs in mount Ephraim, to be a city of

25 And out of the half-tribe of Manasseh, Tanach with her suburbs, and Gath-rimmon with her suburbs: two cities.

26 All the cities were ten, with their sub-urbs, for the families of the children of Kohath that remained. 27 ¶ And unto the children of Gershon, of the families of the Levites, out of the other half-tribe of Manasseh, they gave Golan in Bashan with her suburbs, to be a city of refuge for the slayer, and Beeshterah with her suburbs: two cities.

32 And out of the tribe of Naphtali, Kedesh in Galilee with her suburbs, to be a city of refuge for the slaver; and Hammoth-dor with her suburbs, and Kartan with her suburbs:

33 All the cities of the Gershonites, according to their families, were thirteen cities with their suburbs 34 T And unto the families of the children of Merari, the rest of the Levites, out of the

40 So all the cities for the children of Merari, by their families, which were remaining of the families of the Levites, were by their lot, twelve cities.

41 All the cities of the Levites, within the possession of the children of Israel, were forty and eight cities with their suburbs.

the land to destroy it. 6 And Israel was greatly impoverished because of the Midianites; and the children of Israel cried unto the Lord.

7 ¶ And it came to pass, when the children of Israel cried unto the Loan because of the Midianites,

8 That the Lord sent a prophet unto the children of Israel, which said unto them, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, I brought you up from Egart, and brought you forth out of the house of bundage;

9 And I delivered you out of the hand of the Egyptians, and out of the hand of all that oppressed you, and drave them out from before you, and gave you their land, 10 And I said unto you, I sm the Long your God; fear not the gods of the Amorites, in whose land ye dwell: but ye have not obeyed my voice.

II T And there came an angel of the Long, and sat under an oak which was in Ophrah, that pertained unto Joash the Abi-earlie: and his son Gideon threshed wheat by the wine-press, to hide if from the Midlanites.

12 And the angel of the Loxo appeared unto him, and said unto him. The Long is with thee, thou mighty man of valour.

13 And Gideon said unto him, Oh my Lord, if the Loan be with us, why then is all this befallen us? and where be all his miracles which our fathers told us of, saying, Did not the Loan bring us up from Egypt! but now the Loan hath forsaken us, and delivered us into the hands of the Midianites.

14 And the Lord looked upon him and said. Go in this thy might, and thou shalt mave Isracl from the hand of the Midianites : have not I sent thee?

15 And he said usto him, O my Lord, wherewith shall I save Israel? behold, my family is poor in Manasseh, and I am the least in my father's house.

And the Loan said unto him, Surely I will be with thee, and thou shalt smits the Midianites as one man.

20 And the angel of God said unto him Take the flesh and the unleavened cakes, and lay them upon this rock, and pour out the broth. And be did so.

21 Then the angel of the Lord put forth the end of the staff that was in his hand, and touched the flesh, and the unleavened cakes and there rose up fire out of the rock, and consumed the flesh and the unleavened cakes. Then the angel of the Lorn departed out of his sight.

22 And when Gideon perceived that he was an angel of the Lorn, Gideon said, Alas, O Lord Gou! for because I have seen an angel of the Loup face to face.

23 And the Loan said upto him, Peace be unto thee; fear not; thou shalt not die.

24 Then Gideon built an altar there unto the Lorp, and called it Jebovah-shalom: unto this day it is yet in Ophrah of the Abiezrites.

25 ¶ And it came to pass the same night, that the Loan said unto him, Take thy father's young bullock, even the second bullock of seven years old, and throw down the altar of Baal that thy father hath, and cut down the grove that is by it;

26 And build an altar unto the Lord thy Grid upon the top of this rock, in the ordered place, and take the second bullock, and offer

28 ¶ And when the men of the city arose early in the merning, behold the altar of Basi was cast down, and the grove was cut down that was by it, and the second bullock was offered upon the altar that was built.

29 And they said one to another, Who hath done this thing? And when they inquired and asked, they said, Gidson the son of Joash hath done this thing.

30 Then the men of the city said unto Jossh, Bring out thy son, that he may die; because he hath cast down the alter of Baal, and because he hath cut down the grove that ras by it.

Then Jephthan fled from his brethren, and dwelt in the land of Tob: and there were gathered vain men to Jephthah, and went out with him.

4 ¶ And it came to pass in process of time, that the children of Ammon made war against Israel.

5 And it was so, that when the children of Ammon made war against Israel, the elders of Gilead went to fetch Jephthan out of the land of Tob:

6 And they said unto Jephthah, Come and be our captain, that we may fight with the children of Ammon.

7 And Jephthalt said unto the elders of Gilead. Did not ye hate me, and expel me out of my father's house? and why are ye come unto me now when ye are in distrem?

8 And the elders of Gilead said unto Jephthah, Therefore we turn again to thee now, that thou mayest go with us, and fight against the children of Ammon, and be our head over ali the inhabitants of Gilcad.

9 And Jephthah said unto the elders of Gilead, If ye bring me home again to fight against the children of Ammon, and the Loan deliver them before me, shall I be your thee, but thou doest sie wrong to war against bead?

16 And W any man said unto him, Let them not fail to burn the fat presently, and then take as much as thy soal desireth; then he would answer him. Nay: but thou shalt give if me now: and if not, I will take if by force. 17 Wherefore the sin of the young men was very great before the Lord; for men abhor-of his life.

16 And he went from year to year in circuit to Beth el, and Gilgal, and Mizpeh, and judg-

1 By the occasion of the Ul government of Sa-mucl's sons, the Israelites ask a king. 10 The manner of their king.

A ND it came to pass, when Samuel was old, that he made his sons judges over Israel.

2 Now the name of his first-born was Joel. and the came of his second Abiah: they were judges in Beer-sheba.

3 And his sons walked not in his ways, but turned aside after lucre, and took bribes, and perverted judgment.

- 4 Then all the elders of Israel gathered themselves together, and came to Samuel unto Ramah.
- 5 And said unto him, Behold, thou art old, and thy some walk not in thy ways: now make us a king to judge us like all the gations.

6 T But the thing displeased Samuel, when they said, Give us a king to judge us. And Samuel prayed unto the Loan.

7 And the Loup said unto Samuel, Hearken unto the voice of the people in all that they say unto thee : for they have not rejected thee, but they have rejected me, that I should not reign over them.

8 According to all the works which they have done, since the day that I brought them up out of Egypt even unto this day, wherewith they have forsaken me, and served other gods, so do they also unto thee.

another heart : and all those signs came to pass that day. 10 And when they came thither to the hill, behold, a company of prophets met him; and the Spirit of God came upon him, and he prophesied among them.

11 And it came to pass, when all that knew him beforetime saw, that, behold, he prophesied among the prophets, then the people said one to another, What is this that is come unto the son of Kish? Is Saul also among the prophets?

12 And one of the same place answered, and said, But who is their father? Therefore it became a proverb, Is Saul also among the prophets ! 13 And when he had made an end of prohis servant, Whither went ye? And he said, people; and all the people lifted up their To seek the asses: and when we saw that they were no where, we came to Samuel.

15 And Saul's uncle said, Tell me, I pray thee, what Samuel said unto you.

16 And Saul said unto his uncle, He told us plainly that the asses were found. But of the matter of the kingdom, whereof Samuel spake he told him not.

17 ¶ And Samuel called the people together note the Losp to Mizpeh:

18 And said unto the children of Israel, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, I brought up larged out of Egypt, and delivered you out of the hand of the Egyptians, and out of the hand of all kingdoms, and of them that oppressed you:

19 And ye have this day rejected your God. who tikeself saved you out of all your adversities, and your tribulations; and ye have said unto him. Nay, but set a king over us. Now therefore, present yourselves before the Loan by your tribes, and by your thousands. 20 And when Samuel had caused all the tribes of Israel to come near, the tribe of Benjamin was taken.

21 When he had caused the tribe of Benamin to come near by their families, the family of Matri was taken, and Ful the son of Kish was taken: and when they sought him, he could not be found.

22 Therefore they inquired of the LORD further, if the man should yet come thither. And the Loan answered, behold, he hath hid himself among the stuff.

23 And they ran and fetched him thence: and when he stood among the people, he was bigher than any of the people, from his shoulders and upward.

24 And Samuel said to all the people, See e him whom the Loan hath chosen, that there is none like him among all the people? and all the people shouted, and said, God cave the king.

25 Then Samuel told the people the manner of the kingdom, and wrote it in a book, and haid it up before the Loan. And Samuel sent all the people away, every man to his house. 26 ¶ And Saul also went home to Gibeah; and there went with him a band of men, whose hearts God had touched. 27 But the children of Belial said, How shall this man save us? And they despised

25 And all they of the land came to a wood; and there was honey upon the ground.

26 And when the people were come into the wood, behold the honey dropped; but no man put his hand to his mouth: for the people feared the oath.

27 But Jonathan heard not when his father charged the people with the oath: wherefore he put forth the end of the rod that war in his hand, and dipped it has honey-comb, and put his hand to his mouth; and his eyes were enlightened.

28 Then answared one of the people, and said. Thy father st.aitly charged the people with an oath, saying, Cursed be the man that eateth say food this day. And the people

30 How much more, if haply the people had eaten freely to-day of the spoil of their enemies which they found? for had there not been now a much greater slaughter among the Philistines?

31 And they smote the Philistines that day from Michmash to Ajalon: and the people were very faint.

32 And the people flew upon the spoll, and took sheep, and oxen, and calves, and slew them on the ground: and the people did eat them with the blood.

33 I Then they told Saul, saying, behold, the people sin against the Lorn, in that they eawith the blood. And he said, Ye have transgressed: roll a great stone unto me this day.

And sil the people brought every man his ox with him that night, and slew them there.

35 And Saul built an altar unto the Lorn: the same was the first altar that he built unto the Lorn.

36 Tand Saul said, Let us go down after the Philistines by night, and spoil them until the morning light, and let us not leave a man of them. And they said, Do whatsoever seemeth good unto thee. They said the priest, Let us draw near hither unto God.

37 And Saul asked counsel of God, Shall? go down after the Philistines? Wilt thou deliver them into the hand of Israel? But he answered him not that day:

38 And Saul said, Draw ye near hither all the chief of the people; and know and see wherein this sin bath been this day:
30 For as the Loan liveth, which saveth

Israel, though it be in Jonathan my son, he shall surely die. But there was not a man among all the people that asswered him.

40 Then said no unto all kernel, Be ye on one side, and I tud Jonathan my son will be to on the other side. And the people said unto Saul, Do what seemeth good unto thec.

SAMUEL.

41 Therefore Saul said unto the Loan God of Israel, Give a perfect lot. And Saul and Jonathan were taken: but the people escaped.

42 And Saul mid, Cast lots between me and Jonathan my son. And Jonathan was taken.

43 Then Saul said to Jonathan, Tell me what thou hast done. And Jonathan foold him, and said, I did but taste a little honey with the end of the rod that was in mine hand, said lo, I must die.

44 And Saul answered, God do so, and more also: for thoushalt surely die, Josethan.

45 And the people said unto Suns. Shall Jonathas die, who hath wrought this great saivation in Israel? God forbid: as the Loan liveth, there shall not one hair of his head fall to the ground; for he hath wrought with God this day. So the people rescued Jonathan, that he died not.

46 Then Saul went up from following the Philistines: and the Philistines went to their own place.

47 % So Saul took the kingdom over Israel, and fought against all his enemies on every side, against bleab, and against the children of Ammon, and against the children of Eobah, and against the Philistiness and whithersoever he turned himself he vexed them.

48 And he gathered an host, and smote the Amalekites, and delivered Israel out of the hands of them that spelled them.

49 Now the som of Seal were Jonathan, and Ishui, and Melchi-shan: and the names of his two daughters were these; the name of the first-born Merab, and the name of the younger Michal:

50 And the name of Saul's wife was Ahinoam, the daughter of Ahimasa; and the name of the captain of his host was Abner the son of Ner, Saul's uncle:

51 And Kish was the father of Saul; and Ner the father of Abner was the son of Abiel.

52 And there was sore war against the Philistines all the days of Saul: and when Saul saw any strong man, or any valiant man, he took him unfo him.

CHAP. XV.

1 Samuel sendeth Saul to destroy Amalek: 8 ha spareth Agag, and the best of the spoil, AMUEL also said unto Saul, The Lord sent me te anoint thee to be king over his people, over lisrael: now therefore hearken thou unto the voice of the words of the Lord.

2 Thus with the Loan of hosts, I remember that which Amalek did to Israel, how he laid watt for him in the way when he came up from Egypt.

3 Now go and smite Amalek, and utterly destroy all that they have, and spare them not; but slay both man and woman, infant and suckling, ax and sheep, canel and ass.

4 And Saul gathered the people tegether, and numbered them in Teladas, two hundred thourand footmen, and ten thousand men of Judah.

5 And Saul came to a city of Amalek, and laid wait in the valley.

i 6 ¶ And Saul said unto the Kenites, Go. delpart, get you down from among the AmalesRes. Hest I destroy you with them: for yel ment of the Load, and thy word; because I she wed kindness to all the children of Israel feared the people, and obeyed their voice. when they came up out of Egypt. So the Ke-nites departed from among the Amalekites.

7 And Saul shote the Amalekites from Havilah, tatil thou comest to Shur, that is over against Egypt.

8 And he took Agag the king of the Amalekites alive, and utterly destroyed all the people with the edge of the sword 9 But Saul and the people spared Agag, and the best of the sheep, and of the oxen, and of the fatlings, and the lambs, and all that was good, and would not utterly destroy then: but every thing that was vile and refuse that they destroyed atterly. 10 ¶ Then came the word of the Load unto Samuel, saying.

11 It repenteth me that I have set up Saul to be king : for he is turned back from following me, and hath not performed my commandments. And it grieved Samuel; and he cried unto the Lone all night.

12 And when Samuel rose early to meet Eaul in the morning, it was told Samuel, saying, Saul came to Carmel, and behold, he set him up a place, and is gone about, and passed on, and gone down to Gilgal.

13 And Samuel came to Saul; and Saul said unto him. Blessed be thou of the Lord: I have performed the commandment of the LORD.

14 And Samuel said, What meaneth then this bleating of the sheep in mine cars, and the lowing of the oxen which I hear?

15 And Saul said. They have brought them from the Amalekites: for the people spared the best of the sheep and of the oxen to sacrifice unto the Loap thy God; and the rest we have utterly destroyed.

16 Then Samuel said unto Saul, Stay, and I will tell thee what the Lord hath said to me this night. And he said unto him, Say on.

17 And Samuel said, When thou wast little in thine own sight, west thou not made the head of the tribes of Israel, and the Lond angisted thee king over Israel?

18 And the Loan sent thee on a journey. and said, Go, and utterly destroy the sinners the Amalekites, and fight against them until they be consumed.

19 Wherefore then didst thou not obey the voice of the LORD, but didst fly upon the spoil, and didst evil is the sight of the Loap?

20 And Saul said unto Samuel, Yea, I have obeyed the voice of the Loan, and have gone the way which the Loan sent me, and have brought Agag the king of Amalek, and have utterly destroyed the Amalekites.

21 But the people took of the spoil, sheep and oxen, the chief of the things which abould have been utterly destroyed, to sacri-fice unto the Loan thy God in Gigal. 22 And Samuel said, Hath the Loan ar great delight in burnt-offerings and sacrifices as in obeying the voice of the Lord! Behold, to obey & better than sacrifice; and to hearken than the fat of rams.

23 For rebellion is as the sin of witchcraft, and stubbornness is as iniquity and idolatry: because thou hast rejected the word of the LORD, he hath also rejected thee from being king.

24 ¶ And Saul said unto Samuel, I have sinconsistor I have transgressed the command-

25 Now therefore, I pray thee, pardon my sin, and turn again with me, that I may worship the Loup. 36 And Samuel said unto Saul, I will not return with thee : for thou hast rejected the word of the Long, and the Long bath rejected thee from being king over Israel.

27 And as Samuel turned about to go away.

be laid hold upon the skirt of his mantle, and it rent.

28 And Samuel said unto him. The Long hath rent the kingdom of Israel from thee this day, and hath given it to a neighbour of thine, that is better than thou.

29 And also the Strength of Israel will not lie, nor repent : for he is not a man, that he should repent.

30 Then he said, I have sinned; yet honour me sow, I pray thee, before the elders of my people, and before Israel, and turn again with me, that I may worship the Loap thy God.

31 So Samuel turned again after Saul; and Saul worshipped the Load.

32 Then said Samuel, Bring ye hither to me Agag the king of the Amalekites: and Agag came unto him delicately. And Agag said, Surely the bitterness of death is past.

33 And Samuel said, As thy sword hath made women childless, so shall thy mother be childless among women. And Samuel hewed Agag in pieces before the Long in Gilgal 34 Then Samuel went to Ramah; and Saul went up to his house to Gibeah of Saul.

35 And Samuel came no more to see Saul until the day of his death; nevertheless, Samuel mourned for Saul: and the Loan repented that he had made Saul king over Israel. CHAP. XVI.

Samuel sent by God, under pretence 🎻 a sacrifice, cometh to Beth-lehem, &c.

ND the Lorn said unto Samuel, How long wilt thou mourn for Saul, seeing I have rejected him from reigning over Israel! Fill thine horn with oil, and go, I will send thee to Jesse the Beth-lenemite: for I have provided me a king among his sons.

2 And Samuel said, How can i go? if Saul hear it, he will kill me. And the Loan said, Take an helfer with thee, and say, I am come to sacrifice to the LORD.

3 And call Jesus to the sacrifice, and I will show thee what thou shalt do: and theu shalt anoint unto me him whom I name unto thee.

4 And Samuel did that which the Loapspake, and came to Beth-lehem: and the elders of the town trembled at his coming, and said, Comest thou peaceably?

5 And he said, Peaceably: I am come to sacrifice unto the LORD; sanctify yourselves, and come with me to the sacrifice. And he sanctified Jesse and his sons, and called them to the sacrifice.

6 ¶ And it came to pass when they were come, that he looked on Eliab, and said, Surely the Loap's anointed is before him.

7 But the Loan said unto Samuel, Look not on his countenance, or on the height of his stature; because I have refused him : for the LORD seeth not as man seeth; for man looketh on the outward appearance, but the Loan looketh on the heart.

8 Then Jesse called Abinadab, and made him pass before Samuel. And he said, Neither bath the LORD chosen this.

9 Then Jesse made Shammab to pass by. And he said. Neither bath the Load chosen

10 Again, Jesse made seven of his sons to pass before Samuel. And Samuel said unto Jesse. The Loap hath not chosen these.

11 And Samuel said unto Jesse, Are here all thy children? And he said, There remaineth yet the youngest, and behold, he keepeth the sheep. And Samuel said unto Jesse, Send and fetch him: for we will not sit down till be come hither.

12 And he sent and brought him in. Now he was ruddy, and withal of a beautiful countenance, and goodly to look to. And the Loan said, Arise, anoint him: for this is he.

13 Then Samuel took the horn of oil, and anointed him in the midst of his brethren: and the Spirit of the Loan came upon David from that day forward. So Samuel rose up, and went to Ramah.

14 T But the Spirit of the Loan departed from Saul, and an evil spirit from the Loan troubled him.

15 And Saul's servants said unto him, Behold now, an evil spirit from God troubleth

16 Let our lord now command thy servants, which are before thee, to seek out a man who is a cunning player on an harp; and it shall come to pass, when the evil spirit from God is upon thee, that he shall play with his hand, and thou shalt be well.

17 And Saul said unto his servants, Provide me now a man that can play well, and bring him to me.

18 Then answered one of the servants, and Behold, I have seen a son of Jesse the Beth-lehemite, that is cunning in playing, and a mighty valiant man, and a man of war, of his three sons that went to the battle were and prudent in matters, and a comely person, Eliab the first-born; and next unto him Abi-and the Loap is with him.

19 ¶ Wherefore Saul sent messengers unto Jesse, and said, Send me David thy son, which is with the sheep.

20 And Jesse took an are lades with bread. and a bottle of wine, and a kid, and sent them by David his son unto Saul.

21 And David came to Saul, and stood before him: and he loved him greatly; and be became his armour-bearer.

22 And Saul sent to Jesse, saying, Let David, I pray thee, stand before me: for he hath found favour in my sight.

23 And it came to pass, when the evil spirit from God was upon Saul, that David took an harp, and played with his hand: so Saul was refreshed, and was well, and the evil spirk departed from him.

CHAP. XVII.

1 The armies of the Israelites and Philistines David accepteth the challenge.

OW the Philistines gathered together their armies to battle, and were gathered together at Shochoh, which belongeth to Judah, and pitched between Shochon, and Azekah, in Ephes-dammim.

2 And Saul and the men of Israel were gathe Philistines.

3 And the Philistipes stood on a mountain on the one side, and Israel stood on a mountain on the other side : and there was a valley between them.

4 ¶ And there went out a champion out of the camp of the Philistines, named Golisth of Gath, whose height was six cubits and a span.

5 And he had an helmet of brass upon his head, and he was armed with a coat of mail: and the weight of the coat was five thousand shekela of brass.

6 And he had greaves of brass upon his lega. and a target of brass between his shoulders.

7 And the staff of his spear was like a we ver's beam, and his spear's head weighed six hundred shekels of iron: and one bearing a shield went before him.

8 And he stood and cried unto the armies of Israel, and said unto them, Why are ye come out to set your battle in array? Ass not I a Philistine, and ye servants to Saul? Choose you a man for you, and let him come down to me.

9 If he be able to fight with me, and to kill me, then will we be your servants: but if I prevail against him, and kill him, then shall ye be our servants, and serve us. 10 And the Philistine said, I defy the armies of Israel this day; give me a man that we may fight together.

11 When Saul and all Israel heard those words of the Philistine, they were dismayed, and greatly afraid.

12 7 Now David was the son of that Ephrathite of Beth-lehem-judah, whose name war Jesse; and he had eight sons: and the man went among men for an old than in the days of Saul.

13 And the three eldest sons of Jesse went and followed Saul to the battle: and the names

14 And David mas the youngest: and the three eldest followed Saul.

15 But David went, and returned from Saul, to feed his father's sheep at Beth-lehem.

16 And the Philistine drew near morning and evening, and presented himself forty days. 17 And Jesse said unto David his son, Take now for thy brethren an enhah of this parched corn, and these ten loaves, and run to the camp to thy brethren:

18 And carry these ten cheeses unto the captain of their thousand, and look how thy brethren fare, and take their pledge

19 Now Saul, and they, and all the men of Israel, nere in the valley of Elah, fighting with the Philistines.

20 T And David rose up early in the morning, and left the sheep with a keeper, and took, and went, as Jesse had commanded him : being ready to battle, a Goliath cometh and he came to the trench as the best was proudly forth to challenge a combat: 12 going forth to the fight, and shouted for the battle

21 For Israel and the Philistines had put the battle in array, army against army 22 And David left his carriage in the hand of the keeper of the carriage, and ran into the army, and came and saluted his brethren.

23 And as he talked with them, behold. there came up the champion (the Philistine thered together, and pitched by the valley there came up the champion (the Philistine of Elah, and set the battle in array against of Gath, Goliath b. name) out of the armies of the Philistines, and spake according to the same words: and David heard them. 24 And all the men of Israel, when they saw the man, fied from him, and were sore afraid. 25 And the men of Israel said, Have ye seen this man that is come up? Surely to defy Inrael is he come up : and it shall be that the man who killeth him, the king will enrich him with great riches, and will give him his daughter, and make his father's house free in 26 And David spake to the men that stood by him, saying, What shall be done to the man that killeth this Philistine, and taketh away the reproach from Israel? For who is this uncircumcised Philistine, that he should defy the armies of the living God?

27 And the people answered him after this manner, saying, So shall it be done to the man that killeth him.

28 . And Eliab his eldest brother heard when he spake unto the men; and Eliab's anger was kindled against David, and be said, Why camest thou down hither? and with whom hast thou left those few sheep in the wilderness! I know thy pride, and the naugh-tiness of thine heart: for thou art come down that thou mightest see the battle.

29 And David said, What have I now done?

Is there not a cause?

30 ¶ And be turned from him towards another, and spake after the same manner: and the people answered him again after the former manner.

31 And when the words were heard which David spake, they rehearsed them before Saul:

and he sent for him.

32 ¶ And David said to Saul, Let no man's heart fail because of him : thy servant will go and fight with this Philistine. 32 And Saul said to David, Thou art not able to go against this Philistine to fight with him: for thou art but a youth, and he a man of war from his youth. 34 And David said unto Saul, Thy servant hept his father's sheep, and there came a lion and a bear, and took a lamb out of the flock; 35 And I went out after him, and smote him, and delivered it out of his mouth: and when he arose against me, I caught him by his beard, and smote him, and slew him.

36 Thy servant slew both the ion and the bear; and this uncircumcised Philistine shall be as one of them, seeing he bath defied the armies of the living God.

37 David said moreover, The Loap that delivered me out of the paw of the lion, and out of the paw of the bear, he will deliver me out of the hand of this Philistine. And Saul said unto David, Go, and the Loan be with 38 L And Saul armed David with his ar mour, and he put an helmet of brass upon his head; also he armed him with a coat of mail.

39 ¶ And David girded his sword upon his armour, and he assayed to go; for he had not proved it. And David said unto Saul, I cannot go with these; for I have not proved them. And David put them off him.

40 And he took his staff in his hand, and chose him five smooth stones out of the brook, and put them in a shapherd's bag which he ad, even in a scrip, and his sling was in his hand; and he drew near to the Philistine.

41 And the Philistine came on, and drew bemits.

near unto David; and the man that have the shield went before him

42 And when the Philistine looked about and saw David, he disdained him; for he was but a youth, and ruddy, and of a fair countenance.

43 And the Philistine said unto David, Am I a dog, that thou comest to me with staves? And the Philistine curied David by his

44 And the Philistine said to David, Come to me, and I will give thy flesh unto the fowls of the air, and to the beasts of the field. 45 Then said David to the Philistine, Thou comest to me with a sword, and with a spear, and with a shield; but I come to thee in the name of the LORD of hosts, the God of the armice of Israel, whom thou hast defied.

45 This day will the Loap deliver thee into mine hand; and I will smite thee, and take thine head from thee; and I will give the carcases of the host of the Philistines this day unto the fowls of the air, and to the wild beasts of the earth; that all the earth may know that there is a God in Israel.

47 And all this assembly shall know that the LORD saveth not with sword and spear: for the battle is the LORD's, and he will give you into our bands.

48 And it came to pass, when the Philistine arose, and came and drew nigh to meet David. that David hasted, and ran toward the army to meet the Philistine

49 And David put his hand in his bag, and took thence a stone, and slang if, and smote the Philistine in his forebead, that the stone sunk into his forehead; and he fell upon his face to the earth.

50 So David prevailed over the Philistine with a sling and with a stone, and smote the Philistine, and slew him; but there was no sword in the hand of David.

51 Therefore David ran, and stood upon the Philistine, and took his sword, and drew it out of the sheath thereof, and slew him, and cut off his head therewith. And when the Philistines saw their champion was dead, they fled. 52 And the men of Israel and of Judah arose and shouted, and pursued the Philistines, until thou come to the valley, and to the gates of Ekron: and the wounded of the Philistines fell down by the way to Shaaraim, even unto

Gath, and unto Ekron. 53 And the children of Israel returned from chasing after the Philistines, and they spoiled their tents.

54 And David took the head of the Philistine, and brought it to Jerusalem: but he put his armour in his tent.

55 T And when Faul saw David go forth against the Philistine, he said unto Abner, the captain of the host, Abner, whose son is this youth? And Abner said, As thy soul liveth, O king, I cannot tell.

56 And the king said, Inquire thou whose son the stripling is.

37 And as David returned from the sloughter of the Philistine, Abner took him, and brought him before Saul, with the head of the Philistine in his hand.

of Josethan was knit with the soul of David, and Jonethan loved him as his own soul. 2 And Saul took him that day, and would let him to no more home to his father's house.

3 Then Jonathan and David made a cove-mant, because he loved him as his own soul. 4 And Jonathan stripped himself of the robe that war upon him, and gave it to David, and his garments, even to his sword, and to his how, and to his girdle. 5 \(\text{And David west out whithersoever Sau} \) sent him, and behaved himself wisely : and Saul not him over the men of war; and he was socepted in the night of all the people, and also in the sight of Saul's servants.

6 And it came to pass, as they came, when David was returned from the slaughter of the Philistine, that the women came out of all the cities of larkel, singing and dencing, to meet king Saul, with tabrets, with joy, and with instruments of musick 7 And the women answered one another as they played, and said. Saut hath slain his thousands, and David his ten thousands.

8 And Saul was very wroth, and the saying displeased him; and he said, They have ascribed unto David ten thousands, and to me they have ascribed but thousands: and mast can he have more but the kingdom?

9 And Saul eyed David from that day and forward.

10 ¶ And it came to pass on the morrow, that the evil spirit from God came upon Saul. and he prophesied in the midst of the house; and David played with his hand, as at other times : and there was a javelin in Saul's hand.

11 And Saul cast the javelin; for he said, I will smite David even to the wall with it. And David avoided out of his presence twice.

12 ¶ And Saul was afraid of David, because the Loan was with him, and was departed from Saul. 13 Therefore Saul removed him from him, and made him his captain over a thousand; and he went out and came in before the people. 14 And David behaved himself wisely in all his ways: and the Loan mes with him 15 Wherefore when Saul saw that he behaved himself very wisely, he was afraid of him.

18 But all Israel and Judah loved David, be cause he went out and came in before them.

17 ¶ And Saul said to David, Behold my elder daughter Merab, her will I give thee towife; only be thou vallent for me, and fight the Loan's battles; for Saul said, Let not mire hand be upon him, but let the hand of the Philistines be upon him.

25 And Saul said, Thus shall ye say to David. The king desireth not any dowry, but an hundred foreskins of the Phillstines, to be avenged of the king's enemies. But Saut thought to make David fall by the hand of the Philistines.

26 And when his servants told David these words, it pleased David well to be the king's son-in-law : and the days were not expired.

27 Wherefore David arose, and went, he and his men, and slew of the Philistines two huadred men; and David brought their foreskins, and they gave them in sull tale to the king, that he might be the king's san-in-law. Saul gave him Michal his daughter to wife. 28 % And Saul saw and knew that the Lond was with David, and that Michal, Saul's daughter, loved him.

29 And Saul was yet the more afraid of David: and Saul became David's enemy cou-tinually.

30 Then the princes of the Philistines went forth: and it came to pass, after they went forth, that David behaved himself more wisely than all the servants of Saul; so that his name was much set by CHAP. XIX.

1 Samuel dieth. 10 David provoked to destroy Nabal. 14 Abigail, by her wisdom, preventeth 37 Kabal dieth.

ND Samuel died; and all the Israelites A were gathered together, and lamented bim, and buried him in his house at Ramah. and David arose, and went down to the wilderness of Paran.

2 And there was a man in Maon, whose pessessions were in Carmel; and the man mas very great, and he had three thousand sheep and a thousand goats: and he was shearing his sheep in Carmel.

3 Now the name of the man was Nabal; and the name of his wife Abigail; and she was a woman of good understanding, and of a beautiful countenance : but the man mas churlish and evil in his doings: and he was of the that perfained unto him: and he hath requited bouse of Caleb.

4 ¶ And David heard in the wilderness that Nabal did shear his sheep.

5 And David sent out ten young men, and David said unto the young men, Get you up to Carmel, and go to Nabal, and greet him in my same :

6 And thus shall ye say to him that liveth in prosperity. Peace be both to thee, and peace be to thine house, and peace be unto all that thou hast.

7 And now I have beard that thou hast shearers: now thy shepherds which were with m, we hurt them not, beither was there aught 25 Let not my lord, I pray thee, regard chiming unto them, all the while they were in this man of Belial, even Nabal:, for as his Carmei.

8 Ask thy young men, and they will shew Wherefore, let the young men find favour in thine eyes: for we come in a good day: give, I pray thee, whatsoever cometh to thine hand unto thy servants, and to thy som David.

9 And when David's young men came, they spake to Nahal according to all those words in the name of David, and ceased.

10 T And Nabal at - cred David's servants. and said, Who is David and who is the son of Jesse! There be many servants now-a-days that break away every man from his master.

11 Shall I then take my bread, and my water, and my flesh that I have killed for my shearers, and give if unto men whom I know not whence they be?

12 So David's young men turned their way. and went again, and came and told him all those saying:

13 And Davidsaid unto his men, Gird ye on every man his sword. And they girded on every man his sword; and David also girded on his sword: and there went up after David abode by the stuff.

master; and he railed on them.

15 But the men were very good unto us, and we were not hurt, neither missed we any thing, as long as we were conversant with them, when we were in the fields :

16 They were a wall unto us both by night and day, all the while we were with them keeping the sheep.

17 Now therefore know and consider what thou wilt do: for evil is determined against our master, and against all his nousehold : for he is such a son of Belial, that a man cannot speak to him.

18 I Then Abizail made haste, and took two hundred loaves, and two bottles of wine, and five sheep ready dressed, and five measures of parched corn, and an hundred clusters of raisins, and two hundred cakes of figs, and laid them on asses

32 ¶ And David said to Abigail, Blessed be the Long God of Israel, which sent thee this day to meet me :

3 And Saul pitched in the bill of Hachilah. which is before Jeshimon by the way. But David abode in the wilderness, and he saw that Saul came after him into the wilder-

4 David therefore sent out spies, and understood that Saul was come in very deed.

5 ¶ And David arose, and came to the place where saul had pitched: and David be-ised the place where saul lay, and Abner the son of Ner, the captain of his host: and Saul lay in the trench, and the people pitched round about him

6 Then answered David and said to Ahime-lech the Hittite, and to Abishal the son of Zeruish, brother to Josh, saying, Who will go down with me to Saul to the camp! And down with mee to sau to the camp? And Abishai said, I will go down with thee. 7 So David and Abishai came to the peo-ple by night: and behold, Saul lay sleeping within the trench, and his spear stuck in the ground at his bolster: but Abner and the people lay round about him.

8 Then said Abishai to David, God hath delivered thine enemy into thine hand this day: now therefore let me smite him, I pray thee, with the spear, even to the earth at once, and I will not smite him the second

9 And David said to Abishai, Destroy him not : for who can stretch forth his hand against the Long's anointed, and be guiltless

10 David said furthermore, As the LORD liveth, the Loap shall smite him; or his day shall come to die; or he shall descend inte battle, and perish.

11 The Lond forbid that I should stretch forth mine hand against the Lonu's ancieted : but, I pray thee, take thou now the spear that is at his belster, and the cruse of water, and let us ge.

12 Fo David took the spear and the cruse of water from Saul's bolster; and they gat them away, and no man saw if, nor knew if, neither awaked: for they were all asleep; because a deep sleep from the Loan was fullen

13 Then David went over to the other | hold, even David with his two wives, Ahiside, and stood on the top of an hill afar oil; a great spice bring between them:

David pacificik Saul.

14 And David cried to the people, and to Abner the son of Ner, saying, Answerest thou not Abner? Then Abner answered and said,

Who art thou that criest to the king?

15 And David said to Abner, Art not thou a valiant man? and who is like to thee in-Israel? Wherefore then hast thou not kept thy lord the kin- for there came one of the people in to destroy the king thy lord.

16 This thing is not good that thou hast done. As the Lond liveth, ye are worthy to die, because ye have not kept your master, the Lond's anointed. And now see where the king's spear is, and the cruse of water that nar at his bolster.

17 And Saul knew David's voice, and said, It this thy voice, my son David? And David taid, It is my voice, my lord, O king.

18 And he said, Wherefore doth my lord thus pursue after his servant? for what have

I done? or what evil is in mine hand?

19 Now fherefore, I pray thee, let my lord the king hear the words of his servant. Loan have stirred thee up against me, let him accept an offering; but if they be the children of men, cursed be they before the LORD; for they have driven me out this day from abiding in the inheritance of the Loro, saying. Go, serve other gods.

20 Now therefore, let not my blood fall to the earth before the face of the LORD; for the king of Israel is come out to seek a flea. as when one doth hunt a partridge in the mountains.

21 Then said Saul, I have singed : return, my son David: for I will no more do thee harm, because my sout was precious in thine eyes this day; behold, I have played the fool, and have erred exceedingly 22 And David answered and said, Behold the king's spear! and let one of the young men come over and fetch it.

23 The Lord render to every man his righteousness and his faithfulness; for the Loap delivered thee into my hand to-day, but I would not stretch forth mine hand against the Loup's anointed.

24 And behold, as thy life was much set by this day in mine eyes, so let my life be much set by in the eyes of the Loxo, and let him deliver me out of all tribulation. 25 Then Saul said to David, Blessed be thou, my son David: thou shalt both do great titiags, and also shalt still prevail. So David went on his way, and Saul returned to his piace.

3 ¶ Now Samuel was dead, and all Inra had lamented him, and buried him in Ramah, even in his own city. And Saul had put away those that had familiar spirits, and the wizards, out of the land.

4 ¶ And the Philistines gathered themselves together, and came and pitched in Shunem. and Saul gathered all Israel together, and they

11 Then said the woman, Whom shall I bring up unto thee! And be said, Bring me up Samuel. 12 And when the woman saw Samuel, she cried with a loud voice: and the woman spake to Saul, saying, Why hast thou deceived me? for thou art Saul.

13 And the king said unto her. Be not afraid: for what sawest thou! And the woman said unto Saul. I saw gods ascending out of the earth.

14 And he said unto her, What form is he of! And she said, An old man cometh up; and he is covered with a mantle. And Saul per-ceived that it was Samuel, and he stooped with his face to the ground, and bowed him-

15 T And Samuel said to Saul, Why bast thou disquieted me, to bring me up? And Saul answered, I am sore distressed; for the Philistines make war against me, and God is departed from me, and answereth me no more, neither by prophets, nor by dreams: therefore I have called thee, that thou mayest make known unto me what I shall do.

16 Then said Samuel, Wherefore then dost thou ask of me, seeing the Loap is departed from thee, and is become thine enemy !

17 And the Load bath done to him as he spake by me: for the Load bath rent the kingdom out of thine hand, and given it to thy meighbour, even to David:

20 Then Saul fell straightway all along on the earth, and was sore afraid, because of the words of Samuel: and there was no strength in him; for he had eaten no bread all the day, nor all the night.

NOW the Philistines gathered together all their armies to Aphek: and the Israelites pitched by a fountain which is in Jezreel.

2 And the lords of the Philistines passed on by hundreds, and by thousands: but David and his men passed on in the rearward with Achish. 3 Then said the princes of the Philistines, What do these Hebrews Acre? And Achieh said unto the princes of the Philistines, Is not this David, the servant of Saul the king of Israel, which bath been with me these days, or these years, and I have found no fault in him since he fell unto me unto this day?

Should it not be with the heads of these men ?

6 ¶ And the king and his men went to Jerusalem unto the Jebusites, the inhabitants of the land: which spake unto David, saying, Except thou take away the blind and the lame, thou shalt not come in hither:

7 Nevertheless, David took Ce strong hold of Zion: the same is the city of David.

8 And David said on that day, Whosever getteth up to the gutter, and smitteth the Jebusites, and the lame and the blind, that are hated of David's soul, he shall be chief and capitain. Wherefore they said, The blind and the lame shall not come into the house. 9 So David dwelt in the fort, and called it the city of David. And David built round

themselves in the valley of Rephaim. 19 And David inquired of the Loan, saying, Shall I go up to the Philistines? Wilt thou deliver them into mine hand? And the Loan said unto David, Go up; for I will doubtless deliver the Philistines into thine hand.

20 And David came to Baal-perazim, and David smote them there, and said, The Loan hath broken forth upon mine enemies before me, as the breach of waters. Therefore he called the name of that place Baal-perazim.

5 And the woman conceived, and sent and told David, and said, I am with child.

6 ¶ And David sent to Joab, saying, Send me Uriah the Hittite. And Joab sent Uriah to David.

7 And when Uriah was come unto him, David demanded of him how Josh did, and how the people did, and how the war prospered

8 And David said to Urish, Go down to thy house, and wash thy feet. And Urish departed out of the king's house, and there followed him a mess of meat from the king.

9 But Uriah slept at the door of the king's house with all the servants of his lord, and went not down to his house.

10 And when they had told David, saying Uriah went not down unto his house, David said unto Uriah, Camest thou not from thy journey? Why then didst thou not go down unto thine house?

11 And Urish said unto David. The ark, and Israel, and Judah, shide in tents; and my lord Joah, and the servants of my lord, are encamped in the open fields: shall I then go into mine house, to eat, and to drink, and to lie with my wife ! As thou livest, and as thy soul liveth, I will not do this thing.

12 And David said to Uriah, Tarry bere today also, and to-morrow I will let thee depart. So Uriah abode in Jerusalem that day and the morrow.

24 And the shooters shot from off the wall upon thy servants: and some of the king's servants be dead, and thy servant Uriah the Hittite is dead also.

25 Then David said unto the messenger, Thus shalt thou say unto Joah, Let not this thing displease thee; for the sword devoureth one as well as another: make thy battle more strong against the city, and overthrow it; and encourage thou him.

26 ¶ And when the wife of Urish heard that Urian her husband was dead, she mourned for her hust and.

27 And when the mourning was past, David sent and fetched her to his house, and she became his wife, and bare him a son: but the thing that David had done displeased the LORD.

1 Nathan's parable. 13 David confesseth ha sin, and is pardoned. 24 Solomon is born 26 Rabbah is taken.

ND the Loap sent Nathan unto Pavid: and he came unto him, and said unto him, There were two men in one city; the one rich, ar. the other poer.

2 The rich man had exceeding many flocks and herds:

3 But the poor mes had nothing, save one little ewe-lamb, which he had bought, and nourished up; and it grew up together with him, and with his children: it did eat of his own meat, and drank of his own cup, and lay in his bosom, and was unto him as a daughter.

4 And there came a traveller unto the rich man, and he spared to take of his own flock, and of his own herd, to dress for the wayfaring man that was come unto him; but took the poor man's lamb, and dressed it for the man that was come to him.

5 And David's anger was greatly kindled against the man: and he said to Nathan. As the Loan liveth, the man that hath done this thing shall surely die:

6 And he shall restore the lamb fourfeld. because he did this thing, and because he had no pity.

7 T And Nathan said to David, Thou art Thus saith the Loap God of Israel, the man. I anointed thee king over Israel, and I de-livered thee out of the hand of Saul;

8 And I gave thee thy master's house, and . thy master's wives into thy bosom, and gave thee the house of Israel and of Judah; and, if that had been too little, I would moreover have given unto thee such and such things.

9 Wherefore hast thou despised the com mandment of the Lose, to do evil in his sight? Thou hast killed Urish the Hittite with the sword, and hast taken his wife to be thy wife, and hast slain him with the sword of the children of Ammon.

10 Now therefore the sword shall never depart from thine house; because thou hast despised me, and hast taken the wife of Uriah the Hittite to be thy wife.

11 Thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will raise up evil against thee out of thine own house, and I will take thy wives before thine eyes, and give them unto thy neighbour, and he shall tie with thy wives in the sight of this sun.

12 For thou didst if secretly; but I will do this thing before all Israel, and before the sun. 13 And David said unto Nathan, I have sin-

15 ¶ And Nathan departed unto his house: and the Loap struck the child that Urish's wife bare unto David, and it was very sick.

16 David therefore besought God for the child; and David fasted, and went in, and lay all night upon the earth.

1 Amnon, laving Tamar, by Jonadah's counsel frign-th himself sick, and ravisheth her: 15 he haleth her, and turneth her away.

A ND it came to pass after this, that Abea-lom the son of David had a fair sister, whose name was Tamar : and Amnon the son of David loved ber. 2 And Amnon was so vexed, that he fell sick for his sister Tamar; for she was a virgin: and Amnon thought it hard for him to do any thing to her.

3 But Amnon had a friend, whose name was Jonadab, the son of Shimeah, David's brother:

and Jonadab was a very subtil man. 4 And he said unto him. Why art thou, being the king's son, lean from day to day? Wilt thou not tell me ! And Amnon said unto

5 And Jonedah said unto him. Lay thee down on thy bed, and make thyself sick: and when thy father cometh to see thee, say unto him, I pray thee let my sister Tamar come and give me ment, and dress the meat in my sight, that I may see it, and eat if at her band. 6 T So Amnon lay down, and made himself sick : and when the king was come to see him, Amnon said unto the king, I pray thee let Tamar my sister come and make me a couple of cakes in my sight, that I may eat at her

7 Then David sent home to Tamar, saying, Go now to thy brother Ampon's house, and dress him meat.

8 So Tamar went to her brother Amnon's house; and he was laid down. And she took flour, and kneaded it, and made cakes in his sight, and did bake the cakes.

9 And she took a pair, and poured them out before him, but he refused to est. And Amnon said. Have out all men from me: and they went out every man from him. 10 And Amnon said unto Tamar, Bring the meat into the chamber, that I may eat of thine hand. And Tamar took the cakes which ahe had made, and brought them into the chamber to Amaon her brother.

Il And when she had brought them unto him to eat, he took hold of her, and said unto 17 Then he called his servant that ministered unto him, and said. Put now this momas out from me, and bolt the door after her.

18 And she had a garment of divers colours upon ber : for with such robes were the king's daughters that were virgins apparelled. Then his servant brought her out, and bolted the door after ber.

19 T And Tamer put ashes on her head, and rent her garment of divers colours that was on her, and laid her hand on her head, and went on crying.

20 And Absalom her brother said unto her, Hath Amnon thy brother been with thee? but hold now thy peace, my sister: he is thy bro-ther, regard not this thing. So Tamar remain-ed desolate in her brother Absalom's hou-e. 21 T But when king David heard of all these things, he was very wroth.

CHAP. XV. Absalom stealeth the hearts of Israel: 10 he maketh a conspiracy. 13 David fleeth from Jerusalem. ND it came to pass after this, that Absa-iom prepared him charlots, and horses, and fifty men to run before him. 2 And Absalom rose up early, and stood beside the way of the gate: and it was so, that when any man that had a controversy came to the king for judgment, then Absa-lom called unto him, and said, Of what city art thou? And he said, Thy servant is of one of the tribes of Israel. 3 And Absalom said unto him, See, thy matters are good and right; but there is so man deputed of the king to hear thee.

4 Absalom said moreover, Oh that I were made judge in the land, that every man which hath any suit or cause might come unto me, and I would do him justice!

5 And it was so, that when any man came nigh to him to do him obelsance, he put forth his hand, and took him, and kissed him.

6 And on this manner did Absalom to all Israel that came to the king for judgment: so

Absalom stole the hearts of the men of Israel. 7 ¶ And it came to pass after forty years, that Abralom said unto the king, I pray thee, let me go and pay my yow, which I have wowed unto the LORD, in Hebron. 8 For thy servant vowed a vow while I abode at Geshur in Syria, saying, If the Lond

So he arose and went to Hebron. 10 T But Absalom sent spies throughout all the tribes of Israel, saying. As soon as ye hear the sound of the trumpet, then ye shall say, Absalom reigneth in Hebron.

11 And with Absalom went two bundred men out of Jerusalem, that were called; and they went in their simplicity, and they knew not any thing.

art a stranger, and also an exile.

14 And the king, and all the people that were with him, came weary, and refreshed themselves there.

15 ¶ And Absalom, and all the people the men of Israel, came to Jerusalem, and Ahl-thoubel with him.

16 And it came to pass, when Hushai the Archite, David's friend, was come unto Absalom, that Hushai said unto Absalom, God save the king, God save the king.

17 And Absalom said to Husbai, Is this thy kindness to thy friend? Why wentest thou not with the friend?

18 And Hushal said unto Absalom, Nay; but whom the Long, and this people, and all the men of Israel, choose, his will I be, and with him will I abide.

19 And again, whom should I serve? should I not serve in the presence of his son? have served in thy father's presence, so will I be in thy presence.

20 Then said Absalom to Ahithophel,

Give counsel among you what we shall do. 21 And Ahithophel said unto Absalom, Go in unto the father's concubines, which he hath left to keep the house; and all Israel shall hear that thou art abhorred of thy father; then shall the hands of all that are with thee be land for Absalom.

10 And Absalom, whom we anointed over us, is dead in battle : now therefore why speak ye not a word of bringing the king back !

11 T And king David sent to Zadok and to Abiathar the priests, saying, Speak unto the elders of Judah, saying, Why are ye the last to bring the king back to his house? seeing the speech of all Israel is come to the king, even to his house.

12 Ye are my brethren, ye are my bones and my flesh; wherefore then are ye the last to bring back the king?

13 And say ye to Amasa. Art thou not of my bone, and of my flesh? God do so to me, and more also, if thou be not captain of the host before me continually in the room of Joah.

14 And he bowed the heart of all the men of Judah, even as the heart of one man; so that they sent this word unto the king, Return thou, and all thy servants. 15 So the king returned, and came to Acr-n. And Judan came to Gilgal to go to meet: the king, to conduct the king over Jordan.

19 And there was again a battle in Gob with the Philistines, where Elhanan the son of Jaare-oregim, a Beth-lebemite, slew the brother of Goliath the Gittite, the staff of whose spear mas like a weaver's beam.

20 And there was yet a battle in Gath, where was a man of great stature, that had on every hand six fingers, and on every foot six tees, four and twenty in number; and he also was born to the giant.
21 And when he defied Israel, Jonathan the son of Shimean the brother of David slew him.

22 These four were born to the giant in Gath, and fell by the hand of David, and by the hand of his servants.

David's psalm of thankegiving for God's powexful deliverance, and manifold blessings.

A ND David spake unto the LORD the words of this song, in the day that the Logo had delivered him out of the hand of all his enemies and out of the hand of Saul:

2 And he said, The Lord is my rock, and my fortress, and my deliverer;

3 The God of my rock; in him will I trust; he is my shield, and the horn of my salvation, my high tower, and my refuge, my saviour; thou savest me from violence.

4 I will call on the Loap, who is worthy to be praised: so shall I be saved from mine enemies.

6 When the waves of death compassed me the floods of ungodly men made me afraid;
6 The sorrows of hell compa. d in about;

the snares of death prevented me;

7 In my distress I called upon the Loan, and cried to my God: and he did hear my voice out of his temple, and my cry did enter into his ears.

8 Then the earth shook and trembled; the foundations of heaven moved and shook, be-

9 There went up a smoke out of his nostrils, and fire out of his mouth devoured: coals ere kindled by it. 10 He bowed the heavens also, and came down; and darkness was under his feet. 11 And he rode upon a cherub, and did fly ;

and he was seen upon the wings of the wind.

12 And he made darkness pavilions round about him, dark waters, and thick clouds of the si les.

13 Through the brightness before him were coals of fire kindled.

14 The Loap thundered from heaven, and e Most High uttered his voice. 15 And he sent out arrows, and scattered them; lightning, and discomfited them. 16 And the channels of the sea appeared. the foundations of the world were discovered at the rebuking of the Load, at the blast of the breath of his nostrils. 17 He sent from above, he took me; he drew me out of many waters,

18 He delivered me from my strong enemy, and from them that hated me: for they were too strong for me.

19 They prevented me in the day of my calamity: but the Lord was my stay

6 But the sons of Belial shall be all of them as thorns thrust away, because they cannot be taken with hands: 7 But the man that shall touch them, must be fenced with imp and the stail of a spear; and they shall be utterly burned with fire in the same place.

8 These be the names of the mighty men whom David had: the Tachmonite that sat in the sent, chief among the captains; the same was Adino the Ezuite; he lifted up his spear against eight hundred, whom he slew at one time.

9 And after him was Eleazar the son of Dodo the Abohite, one of the three mighty men with David, when they defied the Philistines that were there gathered together to battle, and the men of Israel were gone away :

10 He arose, and smote the Philistines until his hand was weary, and his hand clave unto the sword: and the Loap wrought a great victory that day; and the people returned after him only to spoil.

Il And after him was Shammah the son of Agee the Hararite. And the Philistines were gathered together into a tsoop, where was a piece of ground full of lentiles; and the people fied from the Philistines.

12 But he stood in the midst of the ground. an i defended it, and slew the Philistines: and

11 And Solomon gave Hiram twenty thousand measures of wheat for food to his household, and twenty measures of pure oil: thus gave Solomon to Hiram year by year.

13 And the LORD gave Solomon wisdom, as he promised him: and there was peace between Hiram and Solomon; and they two

ND Rehoboam went to Shechem: for all Israel were come to Shechem to make him king

2 And it came to pass, when Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who was yet in Egypt, heard of it, (for he was fled from the presence of king Solomon, and Jeroboam dwelt in Egypt,)

3 That they sent and called him. And Jeroboam and all the congregation of Israel came, and spake unto Rehoboem, saying,

4 Thy father made out yoke grievous : now therefore make thou the grievous service of thy father, and his heavy yoke which he put upon us, lighter, and we will serve thee.

5 And he said unto them, Depart yet for three days, then come again to me. And the people departed.

6 T And king Rehoboam consulted with the old men that stood before Solomon his father, while he yet lived, and said, How do ye advise that I may answer this people?
7 And they spake unto him, saying, If thou wilt be a servant unto this people this day, and wilt serve them, and answer them, and speak good words to them, then they will be thy servants for ever.

8 But he forsook the counsel of the old men. which they had given him, and consulted with the young men that were grown up with him, and edurat, according to the word of the Loan, and returned to depart, according to the word of the Loan.

25 Then Jeroboam built Shechem in

9 And he said unto them, What counsel give ye that we may answer this people who have spoken to me, saying, Make the yoke which thy father did put upon us lighter?

10 And the young men that were grown up with him, spake unto him, saying, Thus shait thou speak unto this people that spake unto thee, saying, Thy father made our yoke heavy, but make thou if lighter unto us; thus shalt thou say unto them. My little finger shall be thicker than my father's loins 11 And now, whereas my father did lade you with a heavy yoke, I will add to your yoke: my father hath chastised you with whips, but I will chartise you with scorpions.

12 ¶ So Jeroboam and all the people came to Rehoboam the third day, as the king had appointed, saying, Come to me again the third day. 13 And the king answered the people roughly, and forsook the old men's counsel that they gave him :

14 And spake to them after the counsel of the young men, saying, My father made your yoke heavy, and I will add to your yoke: my father also chastised you with whips, but I will chastise you with scorpions.

15 Whorefore the king hearkened not unto the people; for the cause was from the Long. that he might perform his saying, which the Loan spake by Ahliah the Shilonite unto Jeroboam the son of Nebal.

16 T So when all Israel saw that the king hearkened not unto them, the people answered the king, saying, What portion have we in of Jesse: to your tents. O Israel: now see to unto the children of Israel: and he offered thine own house, David. So Israel departed upon the altar, and burnt incense. auto their tents.

18 Then king Rehoboam sent Adoram, who was over the tribute; and all Israel stoned him with stones, that he died. Therefore king Rehoboam made speed to get him up to his charlot, to flee to Jerusalem.

19 So Israel rebelled against the house of David unto this day. 20 And it came to pass, when all Israel heard that Jeroboam was come again, that they sent and called him unto the congregation, and made him king over all Israel: there was none that followed the house of David, but the tribe of Judah only. 21 ¶ And when Rahoboam was come to Jerusalem, he assembled all the house of Judah, with the tribe of Benjamin, an hundred and fourscore thousand chosen men, which were warriors, to fight against the house of Israel, to bring the kingdom again to Rehoboam the son of Solomon. 22 But the word of God came unto Shemaiah

the man of God, saying, 23 Speak unto Rehoboam the son of Solomon king of Judah, and unto all the house of Judah and Benjamin, and to the remnant of the people, saying, 24 Thus saith the Loan, Ye shall not go up, nor fight against your brethren the children of Israel: return every man to his house; for this thing is from me. They hearkened there-mount Ephraim, and dwelt therein; and went out from thence, and built Penuel.

26 And Jeroboam said in his heart, Now shall the kingdom return to the house of David:

27 If this people go up to do sacrifice in the house of the Lord at Jerusalem, then shall the heart of this people turn again unto their lord, even unto Rehoboam king of Judah, and they shall kill me, and go again to Rehoboam king of Judah.

28 Whereupon the king took counsel, and made two calves of gold, and said unto them. It is too much for you to go up to Jerusalem : behold thy gods, O Israel, which brought thee up out of the land of Egypt.

29 And he set the one in Beth-el, and the other put he in Dan.

25 And Elijah said unto the prophets of Baal Choose ye one bullock for yourselves, and dress it first; for ye are many; and call on the name of your gods, bu put no fire under. 26 And they took the ballock which was given them, and they dressed it, and called on the name of Basi from morning even until noon, saying, O Baal, hear us. But there was no voice, nor any that answered. And they leaned upon the altar which was made.

27 And it came to pass at noon, that Elijah mocked them, and said, Cry aloud: for he is a god; either he is talking, or he is pursuing, or he is in a journey, or peradventure he sleep-eth, and must be awaked.

28 And they cried aloud, and cut themselves after their manner with knives and lancets, till the blood gushed out upon them.

29 And it came to pass, when mid-day was past, and they prophesied until the time of the Offering of the evening sacrifice, that there was neither voice, nor any to answer, nor any that regarded.

30 And Elijah said unto all the people, Come near unto me. And all the people came near unto him. And he repaired the altar of the Loap that was broken down.

31 And Elijah took twelve stones according to the number of the tribes of the sons of Jacob, unto whom the word of the Lord came, saying, Israel shall be thy name : 32 And with the stones he built an altar in the name of the Lorp: and he made a trench about the altar, as great as would contain two measures of seed.

33 And he put the wood in order, and cut the bullock in pieces, and laid him on the wood, and said, Fill four barrels with water, and pour it on the burnt-sacrifice, and on the wood.

34 And he said, Do if the second time. And they did if the second time. Do if the third time. And they did if the third time.

35 And the water ran round about the altar; and he filled the trench also with water.

36 And it came to pass at the time of the offering of the evening sacrifice, that Elijah the prophet came near, and said, LORD God of Abraham, Isaac, and of Israel, let it be known this day that thou art God in Israel, and that I am thy servant, and that I have done all these things at thy word.

37 Hear me, O Loan, hear me, that this people may know that thou art the Loan God, and that thou hast turned their heart back

38 Then the fire of the Loun fell, and consumed the burnt-eacrifice, and the . ad, and the stones, and the dust, and licked up the water that was in the trench.

39 And when all the people saw it, they felt on their faces; and they said, The Loan, he is the God; the Loan, he is the God.

40 And Elijah said unto them, Take the prophets of Basi; let not one of them escape. And they took them: and Elijah brought them down to the brook Kishon, and slew them there.

41 ¶ And Elijah said unto Ahab, Get thee up, est and drink; for there is a sound of abundance of rain.

42 So Ahab went up to eat and to drink. And Elijah went up to the top of Carmel; and be cast himself down upon the earth, and put his face between his knees,

43 And said to his servant, Go up now look toward the sea. And he went up, and looked, and said, There is nothing. And he said, Go again seven times.

44 And it came to pass at the seventh time that he said, Behold, there ariseth a little cloud out of the sea, like a man's hard. And he said, Go up, say unto Abab, Prepare thy chariof, and get thee down, that the rain stop thee not.

45 And it came to pass in the mean while, that the heaven was black with clouds and wind, and there was a great rain. And Ahab rode, and went to Jezreel.

46 And the hand of the LORD was on Elijah ; and he girded up his loins, and ran before Ahab to the entrance of Jezreel. CHAP, XIX.

2 Then Jezebel sent a messenger unto Elijab, saying, So let the gods do to me, and more also, if I make not thy life as the life of one of them by to-morrow about this time.

3 And when he saw that, he arose, and went for his life, and came to Beer-sheba, which belongeth to Judah, and left his servant there. 4 ¶ But he himself went a day's journey into the wilderness, and came and sat down upder a luniper-tree : and he requested for himself that he might die; and said, It is enough; now, O Loan, take away my life; for loss not better than my fathers.

5 And as he lay and slept under a junipertree, behold, then an angel touched him, and said unto him, Arise and eat. 6 And he looked, and behold, there was a cake baken on the coals, and a cruse of water at his head. And he did cat and drink, and laid him down again. 7 And the angel of the Lord came again and thy children ; 6 Yet I will send my servants unto thee tomorrow about this time, and they shall search thine house, and the houses of thy servants;

and it shall be, that whatsoever is pleasant in thine eyes, they shall put if in their hand, and take if away. 7 Then the king of Israel called all the elders of the land, and said, Mark, I pray you, and see how this man sceketh mischief: for he sent unto me for my wives, and for my children, and for my silver, and for my gold, and I denied him not.

8 And all the elders and all the people said unto him. Hearken not unto him, nor consent. 9 Wherefore he said unto the messangers of Ben-hadad, Tell my lord the king, All that thou didst send for to thy servant at the first I will do: but this thing I may not do. And the messengers departed, and brought him word again. 10 And Ben-hadad sent unto him, and said. The gods do so unto me, and more also, if the dust of Camaria shall suffice for handfuls for all the people that follow me.

11 And the king of Israel answered and said. Tell him, Let not him that girdeth on his harness boast himself as he that putteth it

12 And it came to pars when Ben-hadad heard this message, as he was drinking, he and the kings in the pavilions, that he said unto his servants, Set yourselves in array. And they set themselves in array against the city. 13 ¶ And behold, there came a prophet unto Absb king of Israel, saying, Thus saith the Loan, Hast thou seen all this great multitude! behold, I will deliver it into thine hand this day; and thou shalt know that I am the Logo. 14 And Ahab said, By whom? And he said. Thus saith the LORD, Even by the young men of the princes of the provinces. Then he said, Who shall order the battle? And he answered, 15 Then he numbered the young men of the princes of the provinces, and they were two bundred and thirty two: and after them he numbered all the people, even all the children of Israel, being seven thousand.

16 And they went out at noon. But Benhadad was drinking himself drunk in the pavilions, he and the kings, the thirty and two kings that helped him.

17 And the young men of the princes of the provinces went out first; and Ben-hadad sent out, and they told him, saying, There are men come out of Samaria.

18 And he said, Whether they be come out for peace, take them alive; or whether they be come out for war, take them alive. 19 So these young men of the princes of the provinces came out of the city, and the army

in their rooms:

25 And number thee an army, like the army that thou hast lost, horse for horse, and charlot for charlot: and we will fight against them in the plain, and surely we shall be stronger than they. And he hearkened unto their voice, and did so.

26 And it came to pass at the return of the year, that Ben-hadad numbered the Syrians. and went up to Aphek, to fight against Israel.

27 And the children of Israel were numbered, and were all present, and went against them: and the children of Israel pitched before them like two little flocks of kids: but the Syrians filled the country.

28 T And there came a man of God, and spake unto the king of Israel, and said, Thus saith the LORD, Because the Syrians have said, The LORD is God of the bills, but he is not God of the valleys, therefore will I deliver all this great multitude into thine hand, and ye aball know that I am the LORD.

29 And they pitched one over against the ether seven days. And so it was, that in the seventh day the battle was joined: and the children of Israel slew of the Syrians an hundred thousand footmen in one day.

30 But the rest fled to Aphek, into the city: and there a wall fell upon twenty and seven thousand of the men that were left. And Benbaded fled and came into the city, into an inner

31 ¶ And his servants said unto him, Behold now, we have heard that the kings of the house of Israel are merciful kings: let us I pray thee, put sackeloth on our loins, and ropes upon our heads, and go out to the king of Israel, peradventure he will save thy

32 So they girded sackcloth on their loins, and put ropes on their heads, and came to the king of Israel, and said, Thy servant Ben-ha-dad saith, I pray thee, let me live. And he said, Is he yet alive? he is my brother.

33 Now the men did diligently observe whether any thing would come from him, and did hastly catch d: and they said, Thy brother Ben-hadad. Then he said, Go ye, bring him. Then Ben-hadad came forth to him; and he caused him to come up into the charlot. 34' And Ben-haded said unto him, The cities which my father took from thy father, I will restore; and thou shalt make streets for thee in Damascus, as my father made in Samaria. Then said Ahab, I will send thee away with this covenant. So he made a covenant with

35 ¶ And a certain man of the rons of the prophets said unto his neighbour in the word of the Long, Smite me, I pray thee. And the

36 Then said he unto him, Because thou hast not obeyed the voice of the Loan, behold, as claim a fast, and set Naboth on high among the soon as thou art departed from me, a lion shall people; slay thee. And as soon as he was departed 10 And set two men, sons of Belial, be-with ashes upon his face.

39 And as the king passed by, he cried unto the king; and he said. Thy servant went out into the midst of the battle; and behold, a man turned aside, and brought a man unto me. and said, Keep this man: if by any means he be missing, then shall thy life be for his life, or else thou shalt pay a talent of sliver.

40 And as thy servant was buey here and there, he was gone. And the king of Israel said unto him, So shall thy judgment be; thyself hast decided it.

41 And he hasted, and took the ashes away from his face : and the king of Israel discerned him, that he was of the prophets

42 And he said unto him, Thus saith the LORD, Recause thou hast let go out of thy hand a man whom I appointed to utter destruction, therefore thy life shall go for his life, and thy

1 Ahab denied Naboth's vineyard. 5 Jesebee causeth Naboth to be condemned. 17 Eltjah denounceth judgments against Ahab and Jezebel.

ND it came to pass after these things, that A Naboth the Jezreelite had a vineyard, which was in Jezreel, hard by the palace of

Ahab king of Famaria

2 And Ahab spake unto Naboth, saying. Give me thy vineyard, that I may have it for a garden of herbs, because it is near unto my house: and I will give thee for it a better vine-yard than it; or, if it seem good to thee, I will give thee the worth of it in money.
3 And Naboth said to Ahab, The Loan forbid it me, that I should give the inheritance of my fathers unto thee.

4 And Ahab came into his house heavy and displeased because of the word which Naboth the Jezreelite had spoken to him; for he had said, I will not give thee the inheritance of my fathers. And he laid him down upon his bed. and turned away his face, and would eat no bread.

5 But Jezebel his wife came to him, and said unto him, Why is thy spirit so sad, that

6 And he said unto her. Because I snake unto Naboth the Jezreelite, and said unto him, Give me thy vineyard for money; or else if it please thee, I will give thee another vine yard for it : and he answered, I will not give thee my vineyard.

7 And Jezebel his wife said unto him, Dost thou now govern the kingdom of Israel? Arise and eat bread, and let thine heart be merry ; I will give thee the vineyard of Naboth the Jezroelite.

8 So she wrote letters in Ahab's rame, and sealed them with his seal, and sent the letters unto the elders and to the nobles that were in his city, dwelling with Naboth.

9 And she wrote in the letters, saying, Pro-

12 They proclaimed a fast, and set Naboth on high among the people.

13 And there came in two men, children of Belial, and sat before him : and the men of Relial witnessed against him, even against Naboth, in the presence of the people, saying, Naboth did blaspheme God and the king. Then they carried him forth out of the city, and stoned him with stones, that he died.

14 Then they sent to Jezebel, saying, Na-

16 And the king said unto him, How many times shall I adjure thee that thou tell me nothing but that which is true in the name of the LORD.

17 And he said, I saw all Israel scattered upon the hills, as sheep that have not a shep-herd: and the Loan said, These have no master: let them return every man to his house in peace.

18 And the king of Israel said unto Jehoshaphat, Did I not tell thee that he would prophesy no good concerning me, but evil?

19 And he said, Hear thou therefore the word of the Loap: I saw the Loap sitting on his throne, and all the host of heaven standing by him on his right hand and on his left :

20 And the LORD said, Who shall persuade Abab, that he may go up and fall at Ramothgilend? And one said on this manner, and

4 Now therefore, thus saith the Load, Thou shalt not come down from that bed on which thou art gone up, but shalt surely die. And Elijah departed.

And when the messengers turned back unto him, he said unto them, Why are ye now turned back ?

6 And they said unto him, There came a man up to meet us, and said unto us, Go, turn again unto the king that sent you, and say unto him, Thus mith the Loan, Is it not because there is not a God in Israel, that thou sendest to inquire of Beatzebub the god of Ek-ron! therefore thou shalt not come down from that bed on which thou art gone up, but shalt surely die.

7 And he said unto them. What manner of man was to which came up to most you, and told you those words?

8 And they answered him, He mas an hairy man, and girt with a girdle of leather about his foine. And he said, It is Elijah the Tinh-

9 Then the king sent unto bim a captain of Bity with his fifty: and he went up to him; and behold, he sat on the top of an hill; and he spake unto him. Thou man of God, the king bath said, Come down.

16 And Elijah answered and said to the captain of fifty, If I be a man of God, then let fire come down from beaven, and comsume thee and thy fifty. And there came down fire from heaven, and consumed him and his afty.

11 Again also he sent unto him another captain of fifty with his fifty, and he answered and said unto him, O man of Ged, thus bath the king said, Come down quickly.

12 And Elijah answered and said unto them, If I be a man of God, let fire come down from beaven, and consume thee and thy fifty. And the fire of God came down from heaven, and consumed him and his fifty.

13 ¶ And he sent again a captain of the third fifty with his fifty; and the third captain of fifty went up, and came and fell on his knees before Elijah, and besought him, and said unto him. O man of God, I pray thee, let my life, and the life of these fifty thy servants, be precious in thy sight.
18 Webold, there came fire down from beaven, and burnt up the two captains of the former fifties with their fifties: therefore let my life now be precious in thy sight.

15 And the angel of the Loan said unto Elijah, Go down with him; be not afraid of him. And he arose, and went down with him night: there was none left but the tribe of Juchah only. 19 Also Judah kept not the commandments of the Lord their God, but walked in the statutes of Israel which they made.

30 And the LORD rejected all the seed of Israel, and afflicted them, and delivered them into the hand of spoilers, until he had cast them out of his sight.

21 For he rent Israel from the bouse of David: and they made Jeroboam the son of Nebat king: and Jeroboam drave Israel from following the Lorp, and made them sin a great sin.

23 Until the Loap removed Israel out of his sight, as he had said by all his servants the prophets. So was Israel carried away out of r own land to Assyria unto this day.

24 ¶ And the king of Assyria brought men from Babylon, and from Cuthah, and from Ava, and from Hamath, and from Sepharvaim, and placed them in the cities of Samaria, instead of the children of Israel: and they possessed Samaria, and dwelt in the cities thereof.

25 And so it was, at the beginning of their dwelling there, that they feared not the LORD; therefore the Loap sent lions among them,

26 Wherefore they spake to the king of Assyria, saying, The nations which thou hast removed, and placed in the cities of Sanffria, know not the manner of the God of the land: therefore he bath sent lions among them, and sight of the Lenn, according to all that David behold, they sky them, because they know not the manner of the God of the land.

27 Then the king of Assyria commanded, saying, Carry thither one of the priests whom ye brought from thence, and let them go and dwell there, and let him teach them the manner of the God of the land.

28 Then one of the priests, whom they had carried away from Samaria, came and dwelt in the Lord.

29 Howbeit every nation made gods of their ewn, and put them in the houses of the high places which the Samaritans had made, every nation in their cities wherein they dwelt.

30 And the men of Babylon made Succothbenoth, and the men of Cuth made Nergal, and the men of Hamath made Ashima, 31 And the Avites made Nibbaz and Tartak, and the Sepharvitor burnt their childre in the fire to Adrammelech and Anammelech the gods of Sepharvaiss.

32 So they feared the Loap, and made unto themselves of the lowest of them priests of the high places, which sacrificed for them in the houses of the high places.

33 They feared the Load, and served their own gods, after the manner of the nations whom they carried away from thence

34 Unto this day they do after the former manners: they fear not the Loan, neither do they after their statutes, or after their ordiwhich the Load commanded the children of and in Habor by the river of Gozan, and in-there are the states of the st nances, or after the law and commandment other gods.

39 But the Loap your God ye shall fear: and he shall deliver you out of the hand of all your enemies 40 Howbeit, they did not hearken, but they did after their former manner. 41 So these nations feared the LORD, and served their graven images, both their children and their children's children: as did their fathers, so do they unto this day. CHAP. XVIII. 1 Hesekiah's good reign: 4 he destroyeth idolatry, and prosperath. 9 Samaria is carried

TOW it came to pass in the third year of Hoshen son of Elah king of Jarael, that Hezekiah the son of Ahaz king of Judah began to reign. 2 Twenty and five years old was he when he began to reign; and he reigned twenty and nine years in Jerusalem. His mother's name also was Abi the daughter of Zachariah.

4 T He removed the high places, and brake the images, and cut down the groves, and brake in pieces the brasen serpent that Moses had made: for unto those days the children of Israel did burn income to it : and he called it Nehushtan.

5 He trusted in the Loap God of Israel; so that after him was none like him among all Beth-el, and taught them how they should fear the kings of Judah, nor any that were before

> 6 For he clave to the Lorn, and departed not from following him, but kept his commandments, which the Long commanded Moses.

7 And the Load was with him, and he prospered whithersoever he went forth: and he rebelled against the king of Amyria, and served him not.

8 He amote the Philistines, even unto Gaza, and the borders thereof, from the tower of the watchmen to the fenced city.

And the king of Assyria appointed unto Hezekiah king of Judan three hundred talents of silver, and thirty talents of gold.

15 And Hezekiah gave him all the silver that was found in the house of the Loan, and

I have counsel and strength for the war. Now on whom doet thou trust, that thou rebellest against me ? 21 Now behold, thou trustest upon the staff of this bruised reed, even upon Egypt, on which if a man lean, it will go into his hand and pierce it: so to Pharach king of Egypt unto all that trest on him.

22 But if ye say unto me, We trust in the Lond our God: & not that he, whose high places and whose altars Hezekiah hath taken away, and he'h said to Judah and Jerusalem, Ye shall worship before this altar in Jerusalem? 23 Now therefore, I pray thee, give pledges to my lord the king of Assyria, and I will deliver thee two thousand borses, if thou be able on thy part to set riders upon them. 24 How then wilt thou turn away the face of one captain of the least of my master's servants, and put thy trust on Egypt for chariots and for horsemen?

25 Am Latow come up without the Lorn against this place to destroy it? The Lorn said to me. Go up against this land, and destroy it. 26 Then said Ellakim the coo of Hilkinh, and Shehna, and Joah, unto Rab-shakeh, Speak, I pray thee, to thy servants in the Syrian language; for we understand if: and talk not the people that are on the wall.

27 But Rab-shakeh said unto them, Hath My master sent me to thy master, and tellisalsh, 28 Then Rab-shakeh stood and cried with a loud voice in the Jews' innguage, and spake, saying. Hear the word of the great king, the king of Assyria:

29 Thus saith the king, Let not Hezekiak deceive you: for he shall not be able to deli-

30 Neither let Hezekiah make you trust in the Lorn, saying, The Lorn will surely de-liver us, and this city shall, not be delivered into the hand of the king of Assyria. 31 Hearken not unto Hezekiah: for thus saith the king of Assyria. Make an agreement with me by a present, and come out to me, and then eat ye every man of his own vine, and every one of his fig-tree, and drink ye every one the waters of his cistern:

32 Until I come and take you away to a land like your own land, a land of corn and wine, a land of bread and vineyards, a land of oil-olive and of honey, that ye may live, and not die: and hearken not unto Hezekiah, when persuadeth you, saying, The Loan will deliver us

34 Where are the gods of Hamath, and of Arpad! where are the gods of Sepharvaim, Hena, and Ivah? have they delivered Samaria out of mine hand?

35 Who are they, among all the gods of the countries, that have delivered their country out of mine hand, that the Loan should deli-ver Jerusalem out of mine hand?

36 But the people held their peace, and answered him not a word: for the king's commandment was, saying, Answer him not. 37 Then came Eliakim the son of Hilkiah, which was over the bousehold, and Shebna the scribe, and Joan the son of Asaph the recorder to Hezekiah, with their clothes rent, and told him the words of Rab-shakeh.

A ND it came to pass, when king Rezekiah heard it, that he rent his clothes, and covered himself with sackcloth, and went into the house of the Loan. 2 And he sent Eliakim, which was over the

Isaiah the prophet the son of Amoa.

8 T So Rab-shakeh returned, and found the king of Assyria warring against Libnah: for he had beard that he was departed from

Tachish. 9 And when he heard say of Tirbakah king of Ethiopia, Behold, he is come out to fight niget thee : he sent messengers again unto

Hezekiah, saying, 10 Thus shall ye speak to Hezekiah king of Judah, saying, Let not thy God in whom thou trustest deceive thee, saying, Jerusalem shall not be delivered into the hand of the king of

A≋yria. 11 Behold, thou hast heard what the kings of Assyria have done to all lands, by destroying them utterly ; and shalt thou be delivered?

12 Have the gods of the nations delivered them which my fathers have destroyed; as Gozan, and Haran, and Rezeph, and the children of Eden which were in Thelasar!

13 Where is the king of Hamath, and the king of Arpad, and the king of the city of Sepharvaim, of Hena, and Ivah? 14 ¶ And Hezekiah received the letter of the hand of the messengers, and read it: and Hezekiah went up into the house of the Loan, and spread it before the LORD.

15 And Hezekiah prayed before the Lorp, and said, O Lorp God of Israel, which dwellearth; thou hast made heaven and earth.

23 By thy messengers thou hast reproached the Long, and hast said. With the multitude Long, Set thine house in order; for thou shalf of my chariots I am come up to the height of the mountains, to the sides of Lebanon, and will cut down the tall codar-trees thereof, and proved unto the Losn, saying,

23 So they and their children had the oversight of the gates of the house of the Loan, namely, the house of the tabernacle, by wards.

24 In four quarters were the porters, toward the east, west, north, and south. 25 And their brethren, maich mere in their villages, were to come after seven days from time to time with them. 26 For these Levites, the four chief porters, were in their set office, and were over the chambers and treasuries of the house of God. 27 ¶ And they lodged round about the house of God, because the charge was upon them, and the opening thereof every morning perfaired to them. 28 And certain of them had the charge of the ministering vessels, that they should bring them in and out by tale. 29 Some of them also were appointed to oversee the vessels, and all the instruments of the sanctuary, and the fine flour, and the wine, and the oil, and the frankincense, and the spices.

30 And some of the sons of the priests made the ointment of the spices.

31 And Mattithiah, one of the Levites, who was the first-born of Shallum the Korabite, had the set office over the things that were David subdueth the Philistines and the Moabites, 3 and smileth Hedareser and the Surians.

OW after this it came to pass, that David smote the Philistines, and subdued them, and took Gath and her towns out of the hand of the Philistines. 2 And he smote Monb; and the Monbites became David's servants, and brought gifts.

3 ¶ And David smote Hadarezer king of Zobah unto Hamath, as he went to establish his dominion by the river Euphrates.

4 And David took from him a thousand chariots, and seven thousand horsemen, and twenty thousand footmen: David also boughed all the chariot horses, but reserved of them an

5 And when the Syrians of Damascus came to help Hadarezer king of Zobah, David slew of the Syrians two and twenty thousand men.
6 Then David put garrisons in Syria-damaseus; and the Syrians became David's servants, and brought gifts. Thus the Loan preserved David whithersoever he went.

7 And David took the shields of gold that were on the servants of Hadarezer, and brought them to Jerusalem.

8 Likewise from Tibhath and from Chun, cities of Hadarezer, brought David very much see, and the pillars, and the vessels of brass.

9 ¶ Now when Tou king of Hamath heard how David had smitten all the host of Hadarezer king of Zobah;

10 He sent Hadoram his son to king David, to inquire of his welfare, and to congratulate him, because he had fought against Hadarezer, and smitten him, (for Hadarezer had warred with Tou:) and with him all manner of vessels of gold, and silver, and brass.

11 Them also king David dedicated unto the LORD, with the silver and the gold that he brought from all these nations; from Edom, and from Moab, and from the children of Ammon, and from the Phillstines, and from

Amalek. 12 Moreover Abishal the son of Zerulah slew of the Edomites in the valley of Salt eighteen thousand.

13 ¶ And he put garrisons in Edom; and all the Edomites became David's servants. Thus the Loan preserved David whithersoever he went.

14 T So David reigned over all Israel, and

1 The solemn offering of Solomon at Gibeon:
7 his choice of wisdom is blessed by God:

13 his strength and wealth.

Salement: ahoise of misdom.

AND Solumon the son of David was strengthened in his kingdom, and the Lord his God was with him, and magnified him exceedingly. 2 Then Solomon spake unto all Israel, to the

the chief of the fathers

3 So Solomon, and all the congregation with 1, 17 Solomon's labourers for the building of him, went to the high place that was at Gibeon : for there was the tabernacle of the congregation of God, which Moses the servant of the Loap had made in the wilderness.

4 But the ark of God had David brought up from Kirjath-jearim to the place which David had prepared for it: for he had pitched a tent for it at Jerusalem.

5 Moreover the brasen alter that Bezaleel the son of Uri, the sen of Hur, had made, he out before the tabernacle of the Loan : and Bolomon and the congregation sought unto it.

6 And Solomon went up thither to the braen altar before the LORD, which mas at the tabernacle of the congregation, and offered a thousand burnt-offerings upon it. 7 In that night did God appear upto Solomon, and said unto him, Ask what I shall give thee. 8 And Solomon sald unto God, Thou hast shewed great mercy unto David my father, and hast made me to reign in his stead 9 Now, O Loan God, let thy promise unto David my father be established: for thou hast made me king over a people like the dust of the earth in multitude.

10 Give me now wisdom and knowledge, that I may go out and come in before this people : for who can judge this thy people that is

11 And God mid to Solomon, Because this was in thine heart, and thou hast not asked riches, wealth, or honour, nor the life of thine and that can skill to grave with the cunning enemies, neither yet hast asked long life; but hast asked wisdom and knowledge for thyself, that thou mayest judge my people, over whom I have made thee king ;

12 Wisdom and knowledge is granted unto thee; and I will give thee riches, and wealth, and honour, such as none of the kings have had thy servants, that have been before thee, neither shall there

13 ¶ Then Solomon came from his journey to the high place that was at Gibeon to Jerusalem, from before the tabernacle of the congregation, and reigned over Israel.

14 And Solomon gathered chariots, and horse men: and he had a thousand and four hundred of wine, and twenty thousand baths of oil.
sharlots, and twelve thousand horsemen, which It Then Huram the king of Tyre anplaced in the chariot cities, and with the king at Jorusalem.

15 And the king made silver and gold at decreasing at glessloss as atomes, and codartrees made he as the sycamore trees that are in the vale for abundance.

16 And Solomon had borses brought out of Egypt, and linen yarn: the king's merchants received the linen yarn at a price.

17 And they fetched up, and brought forth out of Egypt a chariot for six hundred shekels of silver, and an horse for an hundred and fifty: and so brought they out horses for all the captains of thousands and of hundreds, and to kings of the Hittites, and for the kings of Syria, the judges, and to every governor in all Israel, by their means.

CHAP. TI,

the lemple : 3 his message to Huram, 11 and Huram's kind answer.

A ND Solomon determined to build an house for the name of the Loan, and an house, for his kingdom.

2 And Solomon told out threescore and ten thousand men to bear burdens, and fourscore thousand to hew in the mountain, and three thousand and six hundred to oversee them.

3 T And Solomon sent to Huram the king of Tyre, saying, As thou didst deal with David my father, and didst send him cedars to build bim an house to dwell therein, even se deal

4 Behold. I build an house to the name of the LORD my God, to dedicate if to him, and to burn before him sweet incense, and for the continual show-bread, and for the burnt-offerings morning and evening, on the sabbaths, and on the new moons, and on the solemn feasts of the Loan our God. This is an ordinance for ever to Israel.

5 And the house which I build & great: for great is our God above all gods.

6 But who is able to build him an house, seeing the heaven and heaven of heavens cannot contain him? who am I then, that I should build him an house, save only to burn sacrifice before him?

7 Send me now therefore a man cunning to work in gold, and in silver, and in brass, and in iron, and in purple, and crimson and blue. men that are with me in Judah and in Jerusalem, whom David my father did provide.

8 Send me also cedar-trees, fir-trees, and algum-trees, out of Lebanon: for I know that thy servants can skill to cut timber in Lebanon; and behold, my servants shall be with

9 Even to prepare me timber in abundance; for the house which I am about to build shall be wonderful great.

10 And behold, I will give to thy servants, the hewers that cut timber, twenty thousand measures of beaten wheat, and twenty thousand measures of barley, and twenty thousand baths swered in writing, which he sent to Solomon, Because the LORD hath loved his people, hehath made thee king over them.

12 Huram said moreover, Blamed & the Loap God of Jarsel, that made heaven and earth, who hath given to David the king a wise shekels of gold. And he overlaid the upper son, endued with prudence and understanding, that might build an house for the Loan, and an house for his kingdom.

13 And now I have sent a cunning man, endued with understanding, of Huram my

14 The son of a woman of the daughters of Dan, and his father was a man of Tyre, skilful to work in gold, and in silver, in bress, in iron, in stone, and in timber, in purple, in blue, and in fine linen, and in crimsond also to grave any manner of graving, and to find out every device which shall be put to him, with thy cunning men, and with the cunning men of my lord David thy father.

15 Now therefore the wheat, and barley, the oil, and the wine, which my lord ward. hath spoken of, let him send unto his ser-

15 And we will cut wood out of Lebanon, as much as thou shalt need; and we will bring it to thee in floats by sea to Joppa, and thou shalt carry it up to Jerusalem.

17 ¶ And Solomon numbered all the strangers that were in the land of Israel, after the numbering wherewith David his father had numbered them; and they were found as hundred and fifty thousand and three thousand and six bendred.

18 And he set threescore and ten thousand of them to be bearers of burdens, and fourscore thousand to be bewers in the mountain. and three thousand and six hundred overseers to set the people a work.

CHAP. III.

1 The place and time of building the temple. 3 The measure and ornaments of the house.

10 The cherubine.

THEN Solomon began to build the house of the Load at Jerusalem in mount Morish, where the LORD appeared unto David his father, in the place that David had prepared in the threshing-floor of Ornan the Jebusite.

2 And he began to build in the second day of the second month, in the fourth year of his

3 T Now these are the things wherein Solomon was instructed for the building of the bouse of God. The length by cubits after the first measure was threascore cubits, and the breadth twenty cubits.

4 And the porch that was in the front of the Asset, the length of it was according to the breadth of the house, twenty cubits, and the height was an hundred and twenty : and he overlaid it within with pure gold. 5 And the greater house he ceiled with fir-tree, which he overlaid with fine gold, and set thereon palm-trees and chains.

6 And be garnished the house with precious tones for beauty: and the gold was gold of Parvaim.

7 He overlaid also the house, the beams, the posts, and the walls thereof, and the doors thereof, with gold; and graved cherubins on the walls.

8 And he made the most boly house, the length whereof was according to the breadth of the house, twenty cubits, and the breadth fine gold, amounting to six hundred talents.

9 And the weight of the mile was fifty chambers with gold.

10 And in the most holy house he made two

5 And the thickness of it was an handbreadth, and the brim of it like the work of the brim of a cup, with flowers of lilies : and it received and held three thousand baths.

6 T He made also ten lavers, and put five on the right band, and five on the left, to wash in them : such things as they offered for the burnt-offering they washed in them; but the sea was for the priests to wash in.

7 And he made ten candlest cks of gold . according to their form, and set them in the temple, five on the right hand, and five on the

13 It came even to pass, as the trumpeters and singers were as one, to make one sound to be heard in praising and thanking the Lorn, and when they lifted up their voice with the trumpets and cymbals and instruments of music, and praised the LORD, saying, For he is good; for his mercy endureth for ever: that then the house was filled with a cloud, even the house of the Long:

4 And he said, Bleesed be the Lorn God of Israel, who hath with his hands fulfilled that which he spake with his mouth to my father David, saying,

5 Since the day that I brought forth my people out of the land of Egypt I chose no city among all the tribes of Israel to build an house in, that my name might be there; neither chose I any man to be a ruler over my people

6 But I have chosen Jerusalem, that my name might be there; and have chosen David to be over my people Israel.

14 And said, O Lone God of Israel, there is no god like thee in the beaven, nor in the earth; which keepest covenant, and showest mercy unto thy servants, that walk before thee with all their boarts: 15 Thou which hast kept with thy servant

David my father that which thou hast promised him; and spakest with thy mouth, bast fulfilled if with thine band, as if is this shall not fall thee a man in my sight to sit up-on the throne of Israel; yet so that thy children take heed to their way to walk in my law, as thou hast walked before me 17 Now then, O Loan God of Israel, let the word be verified, which thou hast spoken unto thy servant David.

18 (But will God in very deed dwell with men on the earth? Behold, heaven and the heaven of heavens cannot contain thee; how much less this house which I have built!)

19 Have respect therefore to the prayer of the servant, and to his supplication, O Lord my God, to hearken unto the ery and the prayer which thy servant prayeth before thee:

20 That thine eyes may be open upon this bouse day and night, upon the place whereof thou hast said that thou wouldest put thy name there; to hearken unto the prayer which thy servant prayeth toward this place.

21 Hearken therefore unto the supplications of thy servant, and of thy people Israel, which they shall make toward this place : hear thou n thy dwelling-place, even from heaven; and when thou hearest, forgive.

If a man si, against his neighbour, and an oath be laid upon him to make him swear, and the oath come before thise altar in

34 If thy jeople go out to war against their enemies by the way that thou shall send them, and they pray unto thee toward this city which thou hast chosen, and the house which I have built for thy name;

35 Then hear thou from the heavens their prayer and their supplication, and maintain their cause.

36 If they sin against thee, (for there is no man which sinneth not,) and thou be angry with them, and deliver them over before their enemies, and they carry them away captives unto a land far off or near;

37 Yet if they bethink themselves in the land whither they are carried captive, and turn and pray unto thee in the land of their captivity, saying. We have sinned, we have done amiss, and have deak wickedly:

7 Moreover Solomon hallowed the middle of the court that was before the house of the Long: for there he offered burnt-offerings, and the fat of the peace-offerings, because the brasen altar which Solomon had made was not able to receive the burnt-offerings, and the meat-offerings, and the fat.

8 T Also at the same time Solomon kept the feast seven days, and all Israel with him, a very great congregation, from the entering in of Hamath unto the river of Egypt. 9 And in the eighth day they made a solemn assembly : for they kept the dedication of the altar seven days, and the feast seven days.

16 For now have I chosen and sanctified this house, that my name may be there for ever: and mine eyes and mine beart shall be there perpetually.

17 And as for thee, if thou wilt walk before me, as David thy father walked, and do according to all that I have commanded thee, and shalt observe my statutes and my judgments;

18 Then will I establish the thrope of thy kingdom, according as I have covenanted with David thy father, saying, There shall not fail thee a man to be ruler in Israel.

19 But if ye turn away, and forsake my statutes and my commandments, which I have set before you, and shall go and serve other gods, and worship them;

20 Then will I pluck them up by the roots out of my land which I have given them : name, will I cast out of my sight, and will make it to be a proverb and a by-word among all nations.

21 And this house, which is high, shall be an astonishment to every one that pameth by it; so that he shall say, Why bath the Loan done thus unto this land, and unto this house !

22 And it shall be answered, Because they forecok the Loan God of their fathers, which brought them forth out of the land of Egypt. and laid hold on other gods, and worshipped them, and served them; therefore hath he brought all this evil upon them. CHAP. VIII.

6 He hired also an hundred thousand mighty men of valour out of Israel for an hundred talents of silver.

7 But there came a man of God to him, saying, O king, let not the army of Israel go with thee; for the Loap is not with Israel, to wit. with all the children of Ephraim.

2 And he did that which was right in the sight of the Lorn, according to all that David his father had done.

3 ¶ He in the first year of his reign, in the first month, opened the doors of the house of the Lorn, and repaired them.

4 And he brought in the priests and the Levites, and gathered them together into the

5 And said unto them, Hear me, ye Levites : sanctify now yourselves, and sanctify the bouse of the Loan God of your fathers, and carry forth the filthiness out of the holy place.

6 For our fathers have trespassed, and done that which was evil in the eyes of the LORD our God, and have forsaken him, and have furned away their faces from the habitation of the LORD, and turned their backs.

7 Also they have shut up the doors of the porch, and put out the lamps, and have not burned incense, nor offered burnt-offerings in the holy place unto the God of Israel.

11 My sons, be not now negligent; for the LORD hath chosen you to stand before him, to serve him, and that ye should minister unto

12 Then the Levites space, Mahath the son of Amasai, and Joel the son of Azariah, of the sons of the Kohathites: and of the sons of burnt-offering began, the song of the Lo-Merarl, Kinh the son of Abdi, and Azarlah the began also with the trumpets, and with the son of Jehalefet: and of the Gershonites; Jush struments ordanach by David king of Fersel

15 And they gathered their brethren; and of the house of God, and cut in pieces the sancified themselves, and came, according doors of the house of the Long, and he made words of the Long, to cleanse the house of the LORD.

16 And the priests went into the inner part of the house of the Lonn, to cleanse it, and brought out all the uncleanness that they found in the temple of the Lord into the court of the house of the Lord. And the Levites took it, to carry it out abroad into the brook

16 Then they went in to Hezekish the king, and said, We have cleansed all the house of the Loan, and the alter of burnt-offering, with table, with all the vessels thereof.

19 Moreover all the vessels which king Ahaz in his reign did cast away in his transgression have we prepared and sanctified; and behold, they are before the altar of the LORD.

20 Then Hezekiah the king rose early, and gathered the rulers of the city, and went up to the house of the LORD.

21 And they brought seven bullocks, and seven rams, and seven lambs, and seven he goats, for a sin-offering for the kingdom, and for the sanctuary, and for Judah. And he commanded the priests the sons of Aurea to offer them on the alter of the Lord.

22 So they killed the bullocks, and the priests received the blood, and sprinkled if on the altar: likewise, when they had killed the rams, they sprinkled the blood upon the altar: they killed also the lambs, and they sprinkled the blood upon the altar

23 And they brought forth the he-geate for the sin-offering before the king and the congregation; and they laid their hands upon

24 And the priest killed them, and they made reconciliation with their blood upon the altar, to make an atonement for all Israel: for vered them to trouble, to astonishment, and to his inc, as ye see with your eyes.

And the sin-oliving should be made for all Israel

25 And he set the Levites in the house of the Loan with cymbals, with psalteries, and with barps, according to the commandment of David, and of Gad the king's seer, and Nathan. the prophet: for so was the communication the Lore by his prophets.

26 And the Levites stood with the instru-ments of David, and the priests with the 30 Moreover Hezekiah the king and the princes commanded the Levites to sing praise unto the Loan with the words of David, and of Asaph the seer. And they sang preises with gladness, and they bowed their heads and worshipped. 31 Theo Hexekiah answered and said, Now ye have consecrated yourselves unto the Long, come near, and bring sacrifices and thank-offerings into the house of the Long. And the congregation brought in sacrifices and hank-offerings; and as many as were of a free heart burnt-offerings

32 And the number of the burnt-offerings, which the congregation brought, was threescore and ten bullocks, an hundred rams, and ro hundred lambs : all these were for a burntoffering to the Lord

33 And the consecrated things were six hundred oxen and three thousand sheep.

34 But the priests were too few, so that they could not alay all the burnt-offerings: whereere their brethren the Levites did help them, till the work was ended, and until the other priests and sanctified themselves : for the Le vites were more upright in heart to sanctify themselves than the priests.

35 And also the burnt-offerings were in abundance, with the fat of the peace-offerings. and the drink-offerings for every burnt-offering. So the service of the house of the Loan was set in order. 36 And Hezekiah rejoiced, and all the neople, that God had prepared the people: for the thing was done suddenly.

CHAP. XXX.

1 Hezekiah proclaimeth a passover. assembly destroy the altars of idolatr

ND Hezekiah sent to all Israel and Judah and wrote letters also to Ephraim and Manasseb, that they should come to the house of the Load at Jeru alem, to keep the passover unto the Long God of Israel.

2 For the king had taken counsel, his princes, and all the congregation in Jerusalem, to keep the passever in the second

3 For they could not keep it at that time, because the priests had not sanctified them-selves sufficiently, neither had the people gathered themselves together to Jerusalem. 4 And the thing pleased the king and all the congregation.

5 So they established a decree to make proclamation throughout all Israel, from Beersheba even to Dan, that they should come to keep the passover unto the Loup God of Israel at Jerusalem: for they had not done if of a long time in such sort as it was written.

6 Bo the posts went with the letters from the king and his princes throughout all Israel and Judah, and according to the commandment of the king, saying, Ye children of Israel, turn f you that are-escaped out of the hand of the kings of Assyria.

7 And he not ye like your fathers, and like your brethren, which irespassed against the Loan God of their fathers, who there seven days with glade 990

9 For if ye turn again unto the Loan, your brethren and your children shall find com-passion before them that lend them captive, so that they shall come again into this land : for the Load your God is gracious and merciful, and will not turn away his face from you, if ye return unto him.

10 So the posts passed from city to city through the country of Ephraim and Manassek, even unto Zebulun : but they laughed them to scorn, and mocked them.

11 Nevertheless, divers of Asher, and Manameh, and of Zebulun, humbled themselves, and came to Jerusalem.

12 Also in Judah the hand of God was to give them one heart to do the commandment of Ta king, and of the princes, by the word of the LORD.

13 ¶ And there assembled at Jerusalem much people to keep the feast of unleavened bread in the second month, a very great congregation.

14. And they arose and took away the alters that were in Jerusalem, and all the altars for incense took they away, and cast them into the brook Kidron.

15 Then they killed the passover on the four-teenth day of the second month: and the priests and the Levites were ashamed, and sanctified themselves, and brought in the burnt-offerings into the house of the Long.

18. And they stood in their place after their manner, according to the law of Meses the man of God: the priests sprinkled the blood, which they received of the hand A the Levites.

17 For there were many in the congregation that were not sanctified: therefore the Levites had the charge of the killing of the passovers for every one that was not clean, to sanctify them unto the LORD.

18 For a multitude of the people, even many of Ephraim and Manasseh, Issaehar and Zebulun, had not cleaned themselves, yet did they eat the passover otherwise than it was written But Hezekiah prayed for them, saying, The good Long pardon every one 19 That prepareth his heart to seek God, the Lord God of his fathers, though he be not cleaned according to the purification of the anctuary.

30 And the Lord hearkened to Hezekigh, and healed the people.

24 For Hezekiah king of Judah did give to seven thousand sheep: and the princes gave to the congregation a thousand bullocks, and ten thousand slieep: and a great number of priests sanctified themselves.

25 And all the congregation of Judah, with the priests and the Levites, and all the congregation that came out of Israel, and the straners that ame out of the land of Israel, and that ewelt in Judah, rejoiced.

26 So there was great joy in Jerusalem: for since the time of Solumon the son of David king of Israel there was not the like in Jerusalem.

27 Then the priests the Levites arose and blessed the people: and their voice was heard, and their prayer came up to his holy dwellingplace, even unto heaven

Then they had utterly destroyed them all. all the children of Israel returned, every man to his possession, into their own cities.

2 ¶ And Hezekiah appointed the courses of the priests, and the Levites after their courses, every man according to his service, the priests and Levites for burnt-offerings, and for peaceofferings, to minister, and to give thanks and to praise in the gates of the tents of the LORD. 3 He oppointed also the king's portion of his substance for the burnt-offerings, to wit, for the morning and evening burnt-offerings, and the burnt-offerings for the sabbaths, and for the new moons, and for the set feasts, as if is written in the law of the Lord

4 Moreover, he commanded the people that dwelt in Jesusalem to give the portion of the priests and the Levites, that they might be en-souraged in the law of the LORD.

5 ¶ And as soon as the commandment came abroad, the children of Israel brought in abundance the first-fruits of corn, wine, and oil, and honey, and of all the increase of the field; and the tithe of all things brought they in aand the bundantly,

6. And concerning the children of Israel and Judah, that dwelt in the cities of Judah, they also brought in the fithe of oxen and sheep, and the tithe of boly things which were consecrated unto the Loan their God, and laid them by Be:spe.

7 In the third month they began to lay the foundation of the heaps, and finished there in the seventh month.

8 And when Hezekiah and the princes came and saw the heaps, they blessed the Long and bis people Israel.

9 Then Hezekiah questioned with the priests and the Levites concerning the heaps.

10 And Azariah the chief priest of the house of Zadok answered him, and said, Since the then, who stopped all the foundains, and the people began to bring the offerings into the brook that ran through the misst of the land, house of the Loan, we have had enough to eat, saying, Why should the lings of Amyria come. and have left plenty : for the Loan hath blessed his people; and that which is left it this - Frest store

11 Then Hezekiah commanded to prepare the congregation a thousand bullocks, and chambers in the house of the Loan; and they prepared them.

5 And he built alters for all the bost of heaven in the two courts of the house of the LORD.

6 And he caused his children to pass through the fire in the valley of the sec of Hippem: also he observed times, and used enchantments, and used witchcraft, and dealt with a familiar spirit, and with wizards : he wrought much evil in the sight of the Loap, to provoke him to anger.

7 And he set a carved image, the idel which he had made, in the house of God, of which God had said to David, and to Solomon his son, In this house, and in Jerusalem, which I have chosen before all the tribes of Israel, will I put my name for ever :

8 Neither will I any more remove the foot of Israel from out of the land which I have appointed for your fathers; so that they will take heed to do all that I have commanded them, according to the whole taw and the statutes and the ordinances by the hand of Moses.

9 Then asked we those elders, and said unto them thus, Who commanded you to build this house, and to make up there walls ?

10 We asked their names also, to certify thee, that we might write the names of the men that

11 And thus they returned us answer, saying, We are the servants of the God of heaven and earth, and build the house that was builded these many years ago, which a great king of Israel builded and set up.

12 But after that our fathers had provoked the God of heaven unto wrath, he gave there into the hand of Nebuchadpezzar the king of Babylon, the Chaldean, who destroyed this house, and carried the people away into Baby-build this house of God.

14 And the vessels also of gold and silver of the house of God, which Nebuchadnezzar took out of the temple that was in Jerusalem, and brought them into the temple of Babyloa, those did Cyrus the king take out of the temple of Babylon, and they were delivered unto one, whose name was Sheshbazzar, whom he had made governor;

15 And said unto him, Take these vessels, go, carry them into the temple that is in Jerusalem, and let the house of God be builded in his place.

16 Then came the same Sheshbazzar, as God which laki the foundation of the house of God which is in Jerusalem : and since that time even until now hath it been in building, and yet it is not finished.

17 Now therefore, if it seem good to the king, let there be search made in the king's treasurehouse, which is there at Babylon, whether it be so, that a decree was made of Cyrus the king to build this house of God at Jerusalem, and let the king send his pleasure to us concerning this matter.

THEN Darius the king made a decree, and search was made in the house of the rolls, where the treasures were laid up in Babylon

2 And there was found at Achmetha, in the palace that is in the province of the Medes, a roll, and therein was a record thus written:

3 In the first year of Cyrus the king, the same Cyrus the king made a decree concerning the house of God at Jerusalem, Let the house be builded, the place where they offered sacrifices, and let the foundations thereof be strongly laid: the height thereof threescore cubits, and the breadth thereof threescore cubits:

4 With three rows of great stones, and a row of new timber: and let the expenses be

5 And also let the golden and silver vessels of the house of God, which Nebuchadozzar took forth out of the temple, which is at lerusalem, and brought unto Babylon, be restored, and brought again unto the temple come again out of captivity, and all such as which is at Jerusalem, every one to his place, and place them in the house of God.

Now therefore, Tatnai, governor beyond

7 Let the work of this house of God alone; let the governor of the Jews and the elders of the Jews build this house of God in his place.

8 Moreover I make a decree what ye shall to to the elders of these Jews for the building of this house of God: that of the king's goods, even of the tribute beyond the river, forthwith expenses be given unto these men, that

9 And that which they have need of, both young bullocks, and rame, and lambs, for the burnt-offerings of the God of heaven, wheat, sait, wine, and oil, according to the appointent of the priests which are at Jerusalem, let it be given them day by day without fail :

10 That they may oner sacrifices of sweet savours unto the God of heaven, and pray for the life of the king, and of his sons.

Il Also I have made a decree, that whosoever shall alter this word, let timber be pulled down from his house, and being set up, let him be haused thereon; and let his house be made a doughill for this.

12 And the God that bath caused his name to dwell there destroy all kings and people, that shall put to their hand to alter and to destroy this house of God which is at Jerusalem. Darius have made a decree; let it be done with speed.

13 ¶ Then Tatnai, governor on this side the river. Shethar-bozzai, and their companions, according to that which Darius the ling had ment, so they did speedily.

14 And the elders of the Jews builded, and they prospered through the prophesying of Haggai the prophet, and Zechariah as son of iddo. And they builded and finished it, according to the commandment of the God of · Israel, and according to the commandment of Cyrus, and Darius, and Artaxerxes king of
